NOVEMBER, 1783. THE NUMB. 2786.

PENNSYLVANIA GAZETTE.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1783.

By the UNITED STATES in CONGRESS assembled.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS it hath pleased the Supreme Ruler of all human events to dispose the hearts of the late belligerent powers to put a period to the effusion of human blood, by proclaiming a cessation of all hostilities by sea and land; and these United States are not only happily rescued from the dangers and calamities to which they have been so long exposed, but their freedom, sovereignty and independence ultimately acknowledged: AND WHEREAS, in the progress of a contest, on which the most essential rights of human nature depended, the interposition of Divine Providence in our favour hath been most abundantly and most graciously manifested, and the citizens of these United States have every reason for praise and gratitude to the God of their salvation. Impressed, therefore, with an exalted sense of the blessings by which we are surrounded, and of our entire dependence on that Almighty Being, from whose goodness and bounty they are derived: The United States in Congress assembled do recommend it to the several States to set apart the second THURSDAY in December next as a day of public Thanksgiving; that all the people may then assemble to celebrate, with grateful hearts and united voices, the praises of their Supreme and all bountiful Benefactor, for his numberless favors and mercies; that he hath been pleased to conduct us in safety through all the perils and vicissitudes of the war; that he hath given us unanimity and resolution to adhere to our just rights; that he hath raised up a powerful Ally to assist us in supporting them, and hath so far crowned our united efforts with success, that in the course of the present year hostilities have ceased, and we are left in the undisputed possession of our liberties and independence, and of the fruits of our own lands, and in the free participation of the treasures of the sea: that he hath prospered the labour of our husbandmen with plentiful harvests; and above all, that he hath been pleased to continue to us the light of the blessed gospel, and secured to us, in the fullest extent, the rights of conscience, in faith and worship. And while our hearts overflow with gratitude, and our lips set forth the praises of our great Creator, that we also offer up fervent supplications, that it may please him to pardon all our offences, to give wisdom and unanimity to our public councils, to cement all our citizens in the bonds of affection, and to inspire them with an earnest regard for the national honor and interest, to enable them to improve the days of prosperity by every good work, and to be lovers of peace and tranquilty: that he may be pleased to bless us in our husbandry, our commerce and navigation, to smile upon our seminaries and means of education, to cause pure religion and virtue to flourish, to give peace to all nations, and to fill the world with his glory.

DONE by the United States in Congress assembled. Witness his excellency ELIAS BOUDINOT, our president, this eighteenth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty-three, and of the sovereignty and independence of the United States of America the eighth.

ELIAS BOUDINOT, President.

CHARLES THOMSON, Secretary.

To be SOLD at private SALE,

The following described Tracts of LAND, situate in Uwchland township, Chester county, about 30 miles from this city:

No. 1. CONTAINING about 220 acres, 20 of which are meadow; on this place are erected a large stone dwelling-house, kitchen and pump-house adjoining, an excellent stone barn with stables underneath, all in good order. a stone smith's shop and coal-house: Near the house is an excellent apple orchard, and a variety of pear and peach trees: The house is pleasantly situated in a good neighbourhood, and one of the best stands for a store in the county; on one end of this place is a small stone house with a squared log kitchen, log barn, spring-house, &c. suitable for a tenant, or will make it convenient to divide the place.

No. 2. Adjoining the above, known by the name of the Red-Lion Tavern, having been many years occupied as such; contains about 200 acres, a large proportion of which is good timber land, about 20 acres of meadow, most of which may be watered and made very good; on this place are two good orchards, the buildings are the tavern house and the buildings adjacent for carrying on that business: Near the above is a large stone house built so as to accommodate two families, and a large frame barn. The healthy, pleasant and public situation of both the above plantations will always render them good stands for business, being at the junction of six public roads leading to different parts of the country. The annual election for the north-west district of Chester county has been held at the above tavern since the revolution.

No. 3. Adjoining the last described tract, contains about 150 acres, whereon is a squared log dwelling-house, barn and other out houses, a good apple orchard, and about 15 acres of meadow; on this place is a considerable quantity of excellent timber land, within less than a mile of limestone, which renders it very valuable; several fields on the above farms have been limed to very good effect. They will be sold all together or seperate as may best suit the purchaser, possession may be had early next spring. For terms apply to Doctor WHELEN, near the land, who will shew it to any person inclining to purchase, or to ISRAEL WHELEN or ISAAC WHELEN, Market-street, Philadelphia. †

LONDON.

Auguſt 21. Letters from Peterſburgh ſay, that the deſign of purſuing hoſtilities againſt the Turks is for the preſent ſet aſide, and that the attention of government is occupied in purſuing meaſures for ſecuring the Ruſſian towns from the plague, which continues to make dreadful havock in the Turkiſh armies. Theſe letters add, that when the peſtilence ſubſides, the war will be purſued with the utmoſt vigour, unleſs the Grand Signor ſhall comply with the terms of conciliation already propoſed.

Literal extract of a private letter from Paris, dated Auguſt 11.

"The Intelligence from Breſt has brought the trial and ſentence of the Compte de Graſſe, who was tried by a Court Martial held on board L'Invincible of 100 guns, at that port, which ſat from the 6th of July to the 5th inſtant, for the affair of the 12th of April, 1782. The charge againſt that unfortunate officer ran in different channels, the principal of which was, the ſurrendering the Ville de Paris, of 110 guns, to the Britiſh fleet, and for other inſtances of diſgraceful negligence on that day, by which ſeven of the fineſt ſhips in the French ſervice were either taken or deſtroyed, and the reſt of the ſquadron ſo ſcattered, that the expedition which was intended, was totally put an end to, at a ſtroke. The Spaniards have had no ſmall hand in proſecuting this Admiral, who is ſentenced to be diveſted of the Order of St. Louis (of which he has for years been Grand Maſter) to be rendered incapable of ſerving in the navies of France in future; to be impriſoned twenty-one years in ſome of the royal caſtles appointed for the confinement of ſtate criminals; to have his ſentence read to him by one of the King's Judges once a year; and to be expoſed at the end of every ſeven years to the people.

The firſt part of the ſentence has been performed by (le Boureau) the common hangman at Breſt, who was ſent on board for this purpoſe, immediately after the King had confirmed the ſentence. The Compte bears his hard fate with extraordinary ſubmiſſion; he continues a priſoner on board L'Invincible till the royal order is ſent for his removal, which is expected will be to the caſtle of Chalons St. Laurent, in the province of Picardy; various are the opinions of the Compte's fate; as the only thing he appears to have been guilty of is, in having been out manœuvered by your Engliſh Rodney, whoſe ſtep at any other period than that in which it happened, would have been looked on as a fit of deſperation. The evidence of his own officers went ſo far towards his conviction, as to aſſert the Ville de Paris was not in ſuch a condition as to neceſſitate her ſtriking, the ſhip was in good order, though ſhe had loſt many men. We regret his fate; but it is neceſſary to make examples. The trials of two Captains ſent home by Monſ. Suffrein, come on next month, the principal evidences being ſent home with them."

Auguſt 22. The diſpatches which were ſent to Falmouth on Thurſday laſt, to be forwarded to Sir Guy Carleton, contain ſome additional inſtructions, which were wanting before he could withdraw the troops from New-York.

The Turks have been preſſing for the aſſiſtance of the French Court, ever ſince the Empreſs's army has taken the field, a ſpirit of dejection having lately pervaded the Councils, which prevents their making the cuſtomary exertions to ſupport the dignity and maintain the welfare of their country.

The emigration from Ireland, particularly from the northern parts, ſtill continue to be very numerous; weavers and mechanics of all deſcriptions are daily flocking to the New States.

On Saturday morning early about 90 convicts under ſentence of tranſportation in Newgate, were put on board a lighter at Black-Friars, which proceeded with and put them on board the Swift, Capt. Pump, lying at Blackwall, for their reception, and bound to Nova-Scotia (the land of froſt and freedom)

BOSTON, October 23.

Captain Parſons, from Newfoundland, informs, that the day before he ſailed from thence, a veſſel arrived there in 40 days from Ireland, the maſter of which reported, that in conſequence of orders received there from England for diſarming the inhabitants, the Volunteers of Ireland, to the amount of upwards of an hundred thouſand, had aſſembled, and were determined to repel any force that ſhould attempt to uſe any coercive meaſures; the conſequences expected were dreadful. And that they were in great confuſion in England.

Saturday and Sunday laſt, we experienced here the moſt ſevere N. E. ſtorm for the ſeaſon, that has been known for ſeveral years. A new ſhip from Portſmouth, bound to this port, and a ſchooner from Halifax, are aſhore at the Cape. Many other misfortunes of the kind have undoubtedly taken place. Conſiderable damage was done to the ſhipping and wharves in this port.

Large numbers of counterfeit dollars having been lately diſcovered in this and the neighbouring towns, of the emiſſion of 1778, the public are hereby furniſhed with the following marks to diſtinguiſh the true from the falſe, viz.

The letters and figures upon the ſide on which the head is, are raiſed too high, and are very coarſely made. The rim above the word Carolus, is too narrow, and the letter C of the ſame too large, and the letters A and R too ſmall, the dot after Carolus ſtands too near the III, and the ſeams made to repreſent the hair are very deep, the noſtril is larger and the mouth ſmaller in the counterfeit than in the true, in the words Hiſpan. and Ind. the letter I is too ſmall, the Plus Ultra are not very legible, and the ringing, when dropt upon a ſtone, is much ſhriller and clearer than that of a true one, they are bright, and have the appearance of good, but by rubbing them they are found to be but ſlightly waſhed.

Since our laſt ſeveral houſes and ſtores have been attempted, and ſome broke open and robbed of ſundries, but as the clan are now diſcovered, and five of them taken up and committed to goal, 'tis hoped they will meet their deſerts.

NEW-HAVEN, October 16.

Wedneſday night laſt we had a ſevere N. E. ſtorm, and the fulleſt tide that has been known for theſe forty years; which has done conſiderable damage along ſhore, by carrying off fences, lumber, &c. In the ſtorm, a Virginia built boat, with a wooden grapple, was drove aſhore at Greenwich, and went to pieces. She was ſeen the preceding evening to run on a rock and overſet, and three of her men to be on her ſide; but no relief could be afforded them, and it is ſuppoſed they all periſhed, as one dead body came on ſhore with the wreck, which had a claret coloured coat on, with white metal buttons, a red jacket, and a pair of woollen overalls.

Oct. 22. Saturday evening laſt came on a violent ſtorm of wind and rain, which continued for twenty-four hours; but happily the tide not being very high, there was little damage done in our harbour. In Goſhen, and ſeveral of the adjacent towns, there was a conſiderable fall of ſnow.

NEW-YORK, October 31.

A letter from Shelburne (Nova-Scotia) dated September 25, informs, that the ſeveral articles uſed in building are very much raiſed in price, and hardly to be got for money; boards ſell for twenty-ſix dollars per thouſand feet, and bricks ten dollars per thouſand.

PHILADELPHIA, November 5.

Thurſday laſt the GENERAL ASSEMBLY met at the ſtate-Houſe, when the Hon. GEORGE GRAY, Eſq; was choſen Speaker; and on Friday PETER Z. LLOYD, Eſq; was unanimouſly choſen Clerk.

The Honorable the General Aſſembly have, by a reſolution, requeſted the Supreme Executive Council to provide a convenient appartment in this city for the Council of Cenſors to meet in; and that the pay of each of the Cenſors be the ſame as is allowed to a member of the Supreme Executive Council.

On Thurſday laſt their Excellencies M. de la Luzerne and M. Van Berkel ſet off from this city for Princeton; and on Friday the laſt mentioned gentleman had a public audience before the Congreſs of the United States, when he delivered his credentials as Miniſter Plenipotentiary from the United Netherlands.

General Carleton and Admiral Digby have iſſued a proclamation, dated the 27th ult. forbidding all perſons whatſoever to offer any inſult to the colours of foreign nations, within the harbour of New-York, under penalty of being ſeverely puniſhed. And commanding the officers of the police, and of the navy and army, to cauſe all perſons concerned in the late outrage on an American veſſel to be apprehended and brought to trial, and on conviction to be puniſhed with the ſeverity due to the offence.

Rocky-Hill, near Princeton, November 2, 1783.

THE United States in Congreſs aſſembled, after giving the moſt honorable teſtimony to the merits of the fœderal armies, and preſenting them with the thanks of their country, for their long, eminent and faithful ſervices,—having thought proper, by their proclamation, bearing date the 18th of October laſt, to diſcharge ſuch part of the troops as were engaged for the war, and to permit the officers on furlough to retire from ſervice, from and after to-morrow, which proclamation having been communicated in the public papers for the information and government of all concerned,—it only remains for the Commander in Chief to addreſs himſelf once more, and that for the laſt time, to the armies of the United States (however widely diſperſed the individuals who compoſed them may be) and to bid them an affectionate,—a long farewell.

But before the Commander in Chief takes his final leave of thoſe he holds moſt dear, he wiſhes to indulge himſelf a few moments in calling to mind a ſlight review of the paſt,—he will then take the liberty of exploring, with his military friends, their future proſpects,—of adviſing the general line of conduct, which in his opinion, ought to be purſued;—and he will conclude the addreſs, by expreſſing the obligations he feels himſelf under for the ſpirited and able aſſiſtance he has experienced from them, in the performance of an arduous office.

A contemplation of the compleat attainment (at a period earlier than could have been expected) of the object for which we contended, againſt ſo formidable a power, cannot but inſpire us with aſtoniſhment and gratitude.—The diſadvantageous circumſtances on our part, under which the war was undertaken, can never be forgotten.—The ſingular interpoſitions of Providence in our feeble condition, were ſuch as could ſcarcely eſcape the attention of the moſt unobſerving,—while the unparalleled perſeverance of the armies of the United States, through almoſt every poſſible ſuffering and diſcouragement, for the ſpace of eight long years, was little ſhort of a ſtanding miracle.

It is not the meaning, nor within the compaſs of this addreſs, to detail the hardſhips peculiarly incident to our ſervice, or to deſcribe the diſtreſſes, which in ſeveral inſtances have reſulted from the extremes of hunger and nakedneſs, combined with the rigors of an inclement ſeaſon;—nor is it neceſſary to dwell on the dark ſide of our paſt affairs.—Every American officer and ſoldier muſt now conſole himſelf for any unpleaſant circumſtances which may have occurred, by a recollection of the uncommon ſcenes in which he has been called to act no inglorious part, and the aſtoniſhing events of which he has been a witneſs;—events which have ſeldom, if ever before, taken place on the ſtage of human action, nor can they probably ever happen again. For who has before ſeen a diſciplined army formed at once from ſuch raw materials? Who that was not a witneſs could imagine, that the moſt violent local prejudices would ceaſe ſo ſoon, and that men who came from the different parts of the continent, ſtrongly diſpoſed, by the habits of education, to deſpiſe and quarrel with each other, would inſtantly become but one patriotic band of brothers? or who that was not on the ſpot can trace the ſteps, by which ſuch a wonderful revolution has been effected, and ſuch a glorious period put to all our warlike toils?

It is univerſally acknowledged that the enlarged proſpects of happineſs, opened by the confirmation of our independence and ſovereignty, almoſt exceeds the power of deſcription: And ſhall not the brave men who have contributed ſo eſſentially to theſe ineſtimable acquiſitions, retiring victorious from the field of war to the field of agriculture, participate in all the bleſſings which have been obtained? In ſuch a republic, who will exclude them from the rights of citizens, and the fruits of their labours? In ſuch a country, ſo happily circumſtanced, the purſuits of commerce and the cultivation of the ſoil will unfold to induſtry the certain road to competence.—To thoſe hardy ſoldiers, who are actuated by the ſpirit of adventure, the fiſheries will afford ample and profitable employment; and the extenſive and fertile regions of the weſt will yield a moſt happy aſylum to thoſe, who, fond of domeſtic enjoyment, are ſeeking for perſonal independence. Nor is it poſſible to conceive that any one of the United States will prefer a national bankruptcy, and a diſſolution of the union, to a compliance with the requiſitions of Congreſs, and the payment of its juſt debts, ſo that the officers and ſoldiers may expect conſiderable aſſiſtance, in recommencing their civil occupations, from the ſums due to them from the public, which muſt and will moſt inevitably be paid.

In order to effect this deſirable purpoſe, and to remove the prejudices which may have taken poſſeſſion of the minds of any of the good people of the States, it is earneſtly recommended to all the troops, that, with ſtrong attachments to the union, they ſhould carry with them into civil ſociety the moſt conciliating diſpoſitions; and that they ſhould prove themſelves not leſs virtuous and uſeful as citizens, than they have been perſevering and victorious as ſoldiers.—What though there ſhould be ſome envious individuals, who are unwilling to pay the debt the public has contracted, or to yield the tribute due to merit, yet let ſuch unworthy treatment produce no invective, or any inſtance of intemperate conduct,—let it be remembred, that the unbiaſſed voice of the free citizens of the United States has promiſed the juſt reward, and given the merited applauſe,—let it be known and remembered, that the reputation of the fœderal armies is eſtabliſhed beyond the reach of malevolence, and let a conſciouſneſs of their atchievements and fame ſtill incite the men who compoſed them to honorable actions, under the perſuaſion, that the private virtues of œconomy, prudence and induſtry, will not be leſs amiable in civil life, than the more ſplendid qualities of valour, perſeverance and enterprize, were in the field:—Every one may reſt aſſured that much, very much of the future happineſs of the officers and men, will depend upon the wiſe and manly conduct which ſhall be adopted by them, when they are mingled with the great body of the community. And although the General has ſo frequently given it as his opinion, in the moſt public and explicit manner, that unleſs the principles of the fœderal government were properly ſupported, and the powers of the union encreaſed, the honor, dignity and juſtice of the nation would be loſt forever: Yet he cannot help repeating on this occaſion ſo intereſting a ſentiment, and leaving it as his laſt injunction to every officer and every ſoldier, who may view the ſubject in the ſame ſerious point of light, to add his beſt endeavours, to thoſe of his worthy fellow citizens, towards effecting theſe great and valuable purpoſes, on which our very exiſtence as a nation ſo materially depends.

The Commander in Chief conceives little is now wanting to enable the ſoldier to change his military character into that of the citizen, but that ſteady and decent tenor of behaviour, which has generally diſtinguiſhed, not only the army under his immediate command, but the different detachments and ſeparate armies, through the courſe of the war; from their good ſenſe and prudence he anticipated the happieſt conſequences, and while he congratulates them on the glorious occaſion which renders their ſervices in the field no longer neceſſary, he wiſhes to expreſs the ſtrong obligations he feels himſelf under, for the aſſiſtance he has received from every claſs, and in every inſtance. He preſents his thanks in the moſt ſerious and affectionate manner to the General Officers, as well for their counſel on many intereſting occaſions, as for their ardor in promoting the ſucceſs of the plans he had adopted; to the commandants of regiments and corps, and to the other officers, for their great zeal and attention in carrying his orders promptly into execution; to the ſtaff, for their alacrity and exactneſs in performing the duties of their ſeveral departments; and to the non-commiſſioned officers and private ſoldiers, for their extraordinary patience in ſuffering, as well as their invincible fortitude in action; to the various branches of the army, the General takes this laſt and ſolemn opportunity of profeſſing his inviolable attachment and friendſhip.—He wiſhes more than bare profeſſions were in his power, that he was really able to be uſeful to them all in future life.—He flatters himſelf however, they will do him the juſtice to believe, that whatever could with propriety be attempted by him, has been done.—And being now to conclude theſe his laſt public orders, to take his ultimate leave, in a ſhort time, of the military character,—and to bid a final adieu to the armies he has ſo long had the honor to command,—he can only again offer, in their behalf, his recommendations to their grateful country, and his prayers to the God of armies.—May ample juſtice be done them here, and may the choiceſt of Heaven's favors, both here and hereafter attend thoſe, who under the Divine auſpices have ſecured inumerable bleſſings for others. With theſe wiſhes, and this benediction, the Commander in Chief is about to retire from ſervice.—The curtain of ſeperation will ſoon be drawn—and the military ſcene to him will be cloſed forever.

STATE of PENNSYLVANIA.

IN GENERAL ASSEMBLY,

FRIDAY, September 26 1783. A. M.

ON MOTION, Ordered, That the bill, entituled "An Act "for the more speedy and effectual administration of justice," be printed for public consideration.

Extract from the Minutes,

PETER Z. LLOYD, Clerk of the General Assembly.

An ACT for the more speedy and effectual administration of justice.

WHEREAS the securing the property, the liberty and happiness of the people, is the only object for which government hath been instituted, and for the attainment whereof the due administration of justice is indispensably necessary:

Be it therefore enacted, and it is hereby enacted by the Representatives of the Freemen of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and by the authority of the same, That, from and after the day of next, the Judges of the Supreme Court shall hold Courts of Oyer and Terminer, General Goal Delivery and Nisi Prius, in the several and respective counties of this commonwealth every year, in the manner and at the times hereinafter mentioned; that is to say, the Chief Justice shall hold said Courts at , for the county of Chester, on the last Mondays in the months of April and October; and at Newtown, for the county of Bucks, on the first Mondays in the months of May and November; and at Philadelphia, for the county of Philadelphia, on the second Mondays in the two months last aforementioned.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said Courts of Oyer and Terminer, Goal Delivery and Nisi Prius, shall be held at Easton, for the county of Northampton, on the last Mondays in the months of March and September; at Reading, for the county of Berks, on the first Mondays in the months of April and October; at Lancaster, for the county of Lancaster, on the second Mondays in the two months last aforesaid; at York, for the county of York, on the last Mondays in the months of August and February; at Carlisle, for the county of Cumberland, on the first Mondays in the months of September and March; at Sunbury, for the county of Northumberland, on the second Mondays in the two months last aforesaid; at Bedford, for the county of Bedford, on the first Monday in August; at for the county of Westmoreland, on the second Monday in August; and at , for the county of Washington, on the third Monday in August.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the three Puisné Judges of the said Supreme Court shall hold the Courts aforesaid in the counties above mentioned (except the counties of Philadelphia, Bucks and Chester) and that they shall and may, according to their discretion and convenience, fix on and determine the counties in which they shall severally attend at the times and places aforesaid; and that the Judges of the said Court, and each and every of them, shall be enabled, by virtue of this act, and they are hereby enabled, without other commission, to exercise all the authority, powers and jurisdiction, which Justices of Oyer and Terminer, General Goal Delivery and Nisi Prius, by law may or can do.

Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the authority aforesaid. That it shall and may be lawful for the Supreme Executive Council to issue a general commission or commissions of Oyer and Terminer and General Goal Delivery, for any one county, to three or more persons of integrity and ability, who, or any two of them, may hold a Court for that occasion only, whenever the Executive Council shall deem it necessary for expediting the trial of any offender or offenders, any thing in this act to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That each and every of the said Judges, on their several and respective circuits, shall have power to pass sentence of death, or any other sentence according to law, and to fix on the time and place of carrying the said sentence or sentences into execution; and that after passing such sentence of condemnation, it shall be lawful to any of the said Judges, before whom the offender or offenders hath or have been convicted, to respite execution from time to time, as to the said Judge may appear proper.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the expences of the said Judges and their servants, on their circuits, shall be borne as heretofore by the respective counties; but that no allowance shall be made for their expences while sitting in bank.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the Supreme Court, from and after the day of next, shall be holden and kept at Philadelphia twice in every year, viz. on the second Mondays in the months of June and December; and that the Judges of the said Court, and each and every of them, shall, on their return from holding the Courts of Nisi Prius aforesaid, make report to the said Supreme Court in bank of all causes wherein special verdicts have been given, motions for new trials or in arrest of judgment have been made, or cases have been stated by the Counsel, or points of law have been reserved; in order that the same may be there argued and determined according to law.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That neither of the said terms of the Supreme Court above mentioned and appointed shall continue longer than thirty days from the beginning thereof, including Sundays and the first days of the same.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said Supreme Court shall have, and they are hereby invested with original jurisdiction and cognizance of all manner of suits, causes and actions, real, personal and mixed.

Provided always, and be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That where the debt or damages in any personal action which shall be found due by default, confession, verdict, or report of referrees, shall not amount to the sum of one hundred pounds, lawful money of Pennsylvania, the plaintiff or plaintiffs in such action shall not recover any costs of suit.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That in case any of the said Judges should be unable, by reason of sickness or other accident, to hold the Courts of Over and Terminer, General Goal Delivery and Nisi Prius, at the days and places above mentioned, the Supreme Executive Council shall, and they are hereby empowered and directed, on information from the said Judge, which he is hereby required to give in due time, to issue a commission, authorising and appointing some suitable person in his stead to hold the Courts aforesaid, who shall have the same powers and be allowed his expences in like manner as the other Judges; and shall receive in addition thereto per pay, from the time of his setting out on such circuit until his return; and shall make report to the Supreme Court in bank, in the same manner as the Judges of the said Court are herein before directed to make report.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the Clerk or Prothonotary of the Supreme Court shall, and he is hereby directed and empowered to appoint some suitable person in each county where he shall not attend in person, to be his deputy Clerk at the Courts of Oyer and Terminer, General Goal Delivery and Nisi Prius, who shall, before he enters upon the duties of his said appointment, take an oath before one of the Judges of the Supreme Court for the faithful execution of the same, and shall keep his office at the county town within the county for which he shall be appointed; and that the Prothonotary of the Supreme Court shall, from time to time, furnish his deputies with a sufficient number of such blank writs as shall be requisite, which shall be tested in the name of the Chief Justice of the said Court; and that each of the said deputies shall keep a docket of all writs issued, and causes depending in their several and respective counties, and of all such rules and entries as shall be made therein.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the deputies appointed as aforesaid shall in their respective counties be Commissioners of Bail; and they are hereby severally empowered and required, as such, to take and receive all and every such recognizance or recognizances of bail as any person or persons shall be willing and desirous to acknowledge or make before any of them, in any action or suit depending in the Supreme Court, in such manner and form as the Judges of the said Court have used to take the same.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That every original writ or summons, declaration in ejectment, or other original process whatever, issuing out of the said Court, shall be returnable on the first day of the term ensuing, that is to say, on the second Monday in the months of June or December; and that the Sheriff or other officer who executes said process shall make return on the first day of the term of every such writ, summons or original process, into the office kept by the Clerk of the said Court in the respective counties, and shall endorse thereon his said return; and the Clerks of the said offices shall file the same in their respective offices.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That in every action or suit commenced in the said Court, the plaintiff or plaintiffs shall file his or their declaration in the office of the proper county where the said suit or action is or may be brought, within five days (inclusive) after the return of the original writ or declaration in ejectment; and that the defendant or defendants in every such suit or action shall file his or their plea or pleas thereto in writing in the said office, within five days (exclusive) after the expiration of the aforesaid five days; and the plaintiff or plaintiffs in every such suit shall file in said office his or their replication in writing to the plea or demurrer of the defendant, within five days (exclusive) after the expiration of the last mentioned five days; and if any other or further pleadings should be necessary, the same shall be filed in the office, within five days (exclusive) from and after the expiration of the last mentioned five days; so that an issue or demurrer may be made up in every cause at the term to which the original summons, declaration in ejectment, or other original process is returnable, and the said cause or causes may be ready for trial at the court of Assize or Nisi Prius next ensuing the term to which the said action is or may be brought.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That no further or longer time shall be allowed for the pleadings in any cause or suit whatever, and unless the same shall be filed within the respective days above mentioned, it shall be lawful for the plaintiff or defendant to sign a judgment, or enter a non-pros. as the case may be.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid That special bail shall be entered in said Court in all cases where by law it is required, on or before the first day of the term to which the writ is returnable; and if the plaintiff excepts to such bail so entered, he shall give notice thereof to the defendant or his attorney, on the second day of the said term, and the defendant shall perfect his bail within three days (exclusive) from and after the said notice, before the Clerk of the said Court (who is hereby enabled to judge of such bail, and to administer any oath or oaths that may be necessary touching such bail.) And if the defendant shall neglect to enter special bail on or before the first day of the term, or, having entered bail, shall neglect to perfect it within the time above mentioned, it shall and may be lawful for the plaintiff, in either of the said cases, to file common bail for the defendant, and to sign judgment against him; and in case the defendant shall perfect his bail, he shall then file his plea in writing to the declaration of the plaintiff, within the time and according to the rules before mentioned, and the respective pleadings shall be filed according to the said rules.

Provided always, and be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That nothing in the foregoing clause shall be construed to hinder or prevent the Sheriff making a return of cepi corpus et committitur, on any capias ad respondendum issued out of the said Court, and executed by him.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That in case judgment should be signed against any defendant for or by reason of not entering special bail, or perfecting the same within the times above mentioned, it shall and may be lawful for the plaintiff in every such action, besides suing forth his execution against the defendant, to take an assignment of the bail bond, and proceed thereon by summons tested the first day of the said term, and returnable on the fifteenth day of the said term (unless the same should happen on a Sunday, and then on the sixteenth day) and the proceedings on such bail bond and the execution against the defendant shall not be stayed, unless on the return day of the said summons the defendant shall (after paying costs) enter good and unexceptionable bail (to be judged of by the Clerk of the said Court) and plead an issuable plea; and for want of such special bail and issuable plea being filed on the return day of the summons on the bail bond, the plaintiff, after filing his declaration on the bail bond suit, shall proceed as in other causes.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if the plaintiff or plaintiffs in any action or suit depending in said Court, shall neglect to bring such cause to trial at the Court of Assize or Nisi Prius next ensuing the term to which the action or suit was brought, it shall and may be lawful for the Judge of the said Court, and he is hereby required (without any motion made for that purpose) to give the like judgment for the defendant or defendants in every such action or suit as in case of nonsuit.

THOUGHTS upon the permanent Residence of CONGRESS.

First. THERE should be but one fœderal town, in which the Congress should possess such a degree of jurisdiction, as to render their persons, papers and buildings safe, and free from all insults incompatible with sovereignty.

Second. This town should be as near as possible to the centre of the union. This will be found necessary to convey equal energy to every part of the government. It will likewise be found useful, in the time of war, to convey intelligence in equal times to the extreme parts of the States.

Third. It should be situated near a large city. The advantages of this situation are many. 1st. The money of all countries is lodged chiefly in large cities, and this money can only be commanded upon emergencies by the personal intercourse and applications of the heads of the government. 2d. A city will be the best reservoir of the opinions and principles of Congress, and will afford them the quickest and most extensive circulation thro' the States. 3d. A city will contain the greatest number of active, inquisitive, vigilant and jealous spirits, who will act the part of spies upon the Congress, and give the speediest alarm to the continent, if ever they should abuse their power. 4th. A city contains the greatest variety of characters, abounding with the greatest variety of knowledge in commerce, science and mechanical arts, all of which are useful and necessary to legislators. 5th. The cities in the middle States are filled with ministers and sects of every religious denomination: Hence members of Congress and their officers, as well as foreigners, may enjoy the advantages of public worship agreeable to their consciences, without the additional expence of building churches, or supporting ministers for that purpose. 6th. A city affords the greatest variety of company and conveniencies to render life agreeable, at the smallest expence. Company, and the necessary relaxations from business, are always created at an immense expence in villages.

Fourth. The fœderal town should be seated near navigable water. The advantages of this situation are too obvious to be mentioned.

If it is the desire of the Congress to strengthen the union, and encrease fœderal habits and prejudices, New-York and Pennsylvania have a just claim to their perpetual residence, exclusive of every other consideration. These states have felt their safety and importance in their representation in the great council of the nation. They have never entertained any unreasonable jealousies of her power. They have constantly thrown their sovereignty into the continental scale. Their inhabitants consider themselves as citizens of the United States, and feel for every member of the union the sacred ties that should bind countrymen together. In a word-----Pennsylvania and New-York have become fœderal states. Congress may be happy any where; but they will be no where so much respected abroad, or obeyed at home, as in the neighbourhood of Philadelphia or New-York. Little politicians express their fears, lest the state where Congress shall fix their residence should become more wealthy and powerful than her neighbours. What then? Will not this wealth, and this power, belong to the whole union? It was a fear of the future wealth and power of the American colonies, that led Great-Britain to the fatal step that separated them from her for ever. She forgot, that all the wealth and power acquired by her colonies could belong only to herself. Rulers, be wise! The body politic and the natural body are in many respects alike. Do not attempt to transpose the heart. The blood is conveyed most speedily, and effectually, from its present situation to every part of the body. Do not give over receiving nourishment by your mouths. Your heads will not grow too big for your extremities.

Altho' I conceive such great advantages will arise to the Union, from the Congress being in the neighbourhood of a great city, yet I am far from thinking that equal advantages will accrue to the City or State where they shall fix their residence. Their fœderal power will often sit heavy upon the power of the State. Expence and public amusements (so unfriendly to republicanism) will follow them wherever they go. For these reasons, were I compelled to give a vote upon the subject of the permanent residence of Congress, and at the same time to be governed by my affection for Pennsylvania, I would certainly throw my ballot in favour of the neighbourhood of New-York.

RAN AWAY from the ſubſcriber, living in Philadelphia, on the 12th inſtant, an Apprentice Lad, named MATTHIAS HANSON, 21 or 22 years of age, a ſoap-boiler and chandler by trade. Whoever takes up the ſaid lad, and brings him to me, ſhall have SIX NINETIETHS of a DOLLAR Reward, paid by § ALEXANDER PERRY.

TO BE SOLD,

A VALUABLE PLANTATION or Tract of LAND, lying on Cheſter river, Kent county, State of Maryland, containing by patent about 400 acres, nearly one half of which is cleared and the remainder well timbered, with white oak and other uſeful wood, the land is freſh and very good, being well adapted to the growth of wheat, corn and tobacco, and a very conſiderable quantity of fine meadow may be made with little trouble or expence; there are ſeveral fine creeks near it, which, as well as the river, abound with wild foul, fiſh and oyſters; there are on the premiſes two good quarters and other neceſſary buildings, beſide a new wooden dwelling nearly finiſhed in a genteel manner. The above land will be ſold cheap, and goods taken in payment. For particulars apply to the Printers, or to Thomas Smith, Eſq; in Cheſter-Town, Maryland.

For SALE, by public Vendue,

THAT pleaſant SEAT, formerly the eſtate of Robert Hopkins, deceaſed, ſituate in the precinct of Richmond, commonly called Point-no-Point, five miles from the city of Philadelphia, containing one hundred acres and a half, or thereabouts, of which nearly one half is banked meadow of the beſt kind, in good order, the remainder excellent arable land eaſily tilled; the fences are white cedar rails and red cedar poſts.

There are on the premiſes, an elegant two ſtory dwelling-houſe, 58 feet front, of a beautiful hewn ſtone, and 38 feet deep, with four rooms on each floor, elegantly finiſhed; three of the rooms on the ground floor are wainſcotted on three ſides ſurbace high, and in the fourth quite up to the ceiling, with a very handſome cornice in each room; the chimney-places decorated with poliſhed marble, and two of the hearths alſo marble; the entry is 12 feet wide, ornamented with the Dorick entablature, well executed, and pediments over the door of each room; the ſtair-caſe is a ramp and twiſt with handſome brackets; the rooms on the ſecond floor are genteelly finiſhed, two of them decorated with marble chimney-pieces and hearths; the garret is very large and roomy; on the houſe top there are iron rails and mouldings of wood, by way of balcony, from whence there is a beautiful proſpect of the neighbouring ſeats, the river Delaware, and the Jerſey ſhore; the front door is arched, and calculated to admit of ornaments in the higheſt degree of elegance; the kitchen is convenient and the cellar very good, with two commodious and valuable vaults adjoining the houſe.

A ſtone building, 60 feet by 30 feet.

Another building, part of ſtone and part of wood, 65 feet by 25 feet, under which is a large cellar, containing two ovens, calculated for biſcuit-baking, and over it a large bread-room and granary. A framed hay-houſe, 64 by 25 feet. Theſe buildings are capable of holding 100 tons of hay under cover, and afford ſtabling for 20 horſes and 18 head of cattle, beſides ample room for farming utenſils.

A Coach-houſe, a ſtone Smoak-houſe: And at a little diſtance from the manſion, a ſmall tenement with a celler under it, a Waſh-houſe adjoining, and a pump of good water before the door.

Four Orchards containing about 700 apple trees, beſides a collection of fruit trees of the beſt kinds.

The meadow banks on the river are eſteemed equal if not ſuperior to any in the State, and contains an independent trunk or ſluice, which is rendered the more valuable by independent banks on the premiſes, calculated to keep the water from flowing in from the neighbouring ground. The meadows are well drained by 10 feet ditches; one on each ſide, two near the middle, and three acroſs. On the faſt land adjoining the meadow, there is an unfailing ſpring of the beſt water.

The road from the city to this highly improved ſeat, is not only level and very pleaſant, but is more uniformly good at all ſeaſons of the year, than any other road of equal diſtance from the city, and there are two landing places on the premiſes, at which flats containing 20 cords of wood may unlade. One on Frankford creek, and one on the Delaware.

One fourth part of the premiſes, late the eſtate of William Jackſon, deceaſed, will be ſold by virtue of an order of the orphans court, the remaining three fourth parts, at the ſame time and place, by the legatees of the ſaid Robert Hopkins. The whole ſubject to the payment of 75 ounces of coined gold of the kingdom of Portugal, to Elizabeth Hopkins, daughter of Iſaac Hopkins, when ſhe ſhall arrive at the age of twenty-one years, or to her heirs, according to the will of the ſaid Robert Hopkins, deceaſed.

One third part of the purchaſe money to be paid at the time of executing the deed, and ſufficient ſecurity for the payment of the remainder, on the ſecond day of April next, when poſſeſſion will be given.

The ſale to be held at the Coffee-Houſe, on the 5th day of November next, at five o'clock in the afternoon.

To be SOLD by the Subſcriber,

NEAR Bohemia Ferry and Saſſafras Neck, Cæcil County, State of Maryland, a compact level FARM, divided from the one he lives on by a main road, containing about 200 acres; near 30 of which is woodland. The reſidue has been divided in three fields; part of the woodland in each, and the annual produce under common management, from 150 to 200 barrels of corn, and from 500 to 750 buſhels of wheat. The buildings with repair may be made comfortable and ſufficient, and there is a bank and ditch on the road ſide, with part poſt and rail, and part hedge; but a view of the place will beſt recommend it. The purchaſer may probably be accommodated with negroes and ſtock as may ſuit him, and he may have a wheat crop of about 50 acres, ſowed in corn ground, or not, as he pleaſes, with apple and other fruit trees for a young orchard.

Alſo, another FARM, on the other ſide of a creek, and branch from him, containing from 120 to 160 acres, as may be agreed for; on which is a good dwelling and other houſes, garden, orchard, &c. divided very conveniently into three fields, which extend to the creek, the banks of which are very low, or rather level with them, ſo that the whole may be made valuable; for this purpoſe the purchaſer may have a part of the ſaid creek, with a fine marſh. At his choice a ſmall crop of wheat and rye, and perhaps Negroes and Stock.

Theſe Farms may be entered upon the firſt of January next at fartheſt. The titles are indiſputable. A reaſonable proportion of the purchaſe money muſt be paid down, and the reſidue in annual payments, bearing intereſt, with unexceptionable ſecurity.

¶ 10 s. theſe MICHAEL EARLE.

ON MOTION, Ordered, That the bill, entituled "An Act "for the more ſpeedy and effectual adminiſtration of juſtice," be printed for public conſideration.

Extract from the Minutes,
PETER Z. LLOYD, Clerk of the General Aſſembly.

PROVIDED ALWAYS, and be it hereby further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That upon juſt and legal cauſe ſhewn either by the plaintiff or defendant, the ſaid Judge may order the trial of the ſaid cauſe to be put off until the next Court of Niſi Prius, but no longer.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That if the plaintiff or plaintiffs ſhall neglect to bring his or their cauſe or cauſes to trial at the ſecond Court of Niſi Prius enſuing the term to which the ſuit or ſuits hath or have been brought, the Judge ſhall proceed, and he is hereby required to proceed, without any motion for that purpoſe on the part of the defendant or defendants, to give judgment as in caſes of nonſuit, and that ſuch judgment or judgments ſhall have only the force and effect of judgment on nonſuit, and no other force and effect, and the Judge who gives ſuch judgment ſhall award execution againſt the plaintiff or plaintiffs for the coſts as in caſes of nonſuit.

Provided always, and be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That nothing in this act contained ſhall preclude or eſtop the defendant or defendants in any ſuit or cauſe depending in ſaid Court from pleading a dilatory plea, but that ſuch plea ſhall not be received, unleſs the party offering the ſame do, by affidavit, prove the truth thereof.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That every Sheriff or other officer in the ſeveral and reſpective counties within this commonwealth, to whom the return of the venire facias, or other proceſs for the trial of cauſes before the Judge of Oyer and Terminer, General Goal Delivery and Niſi Prius, doth belong, ſhall, upon his return of every ſuch writ of venire facias (unleſs in caſes intended to be tried at bar, or in caſes where a ſpecial jury ſhall be ſtruck by order or rule of Court) annex a pannel to ſaid writ, containing the chriſtian and ſurnames, additions and places of abode of a competent number of jurors named in the ſaid liſt; and the names of the ſame perſons ſhall be inſerted in the pannel annexed to every venire facias for the trial of all iſſues, both in civil and criminal cauſes, at the ſaid Courts in each reſpective county, which number of jurors ſhall be not leſs than forty-eight in any county, nor more than ſixty, without direction of the Judge appointed to go the circuit and ſit as Judge of Oyer and Terminer, General Goal Delivery and Niſi Prius in ſuch county, who is hereby empowered and required, if he ſee cauſe, by order under his hand, to direct a greater or leſſer number; and then ſuch number as ſhall be ſo directed ſhall be the number to ſerve on ſuch jury; and the ſaid Sheriff or other returning officer in the ſeveral and reſpective counties ſhall cauſe the liſt ſo made as aforeſaid to be publicly hung up at leaſt five days before Court in the office of the Clerk of the reſpective counties, that the parties concerned in any ſuch trials may have timely notice of the jurors who are to ſerve at the next Courts of Oyer and Terminer, General Goal Delivery and Niſi Prius, in order to make their challenges to them, if there be cauſe; and that the perſons named in ſuch liſt and no other (unleſs in caſes of trials at bar and ſpecial juries) ſhall be ſummoned to ſerve on juries at the next Courts of Oyer and Terminer, General Goal Delivery and Niſi Prius, in the ſeveral and reſpective counties; and the ſaid Sheriff or other officer is hereby required to return ſuch liſt or pannel on the firſt day of the Court to be held in the ſeveral and reſpective counties.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the name of each and every perſon who ſhall be ſo ſummoned and impannelled as aforeſaid, ſhall be written on ſeveral and diſtinct pieces of parchment or paper, being all as near as may be of equal ſize and bigneſs, by the Clerk of the ſaid Court, or his Agent, who ſhall, by direction and care of the Judge, roll them up in the ſame manner as near as may be, and put them together in a box to be provided for that purpoſe; and when any cauſe of a civil nature ſhall be brought on to be tried, ſome indifferent perſon, by the direction of the Judge, may and ſhall in open Court draw out twelve of the ſaid parchments or papers one after another; and if any of the perſons whoſe names ſhall be ſo drawn ſhall not appear, or be challenged and ſet aſide, then ſuch further number, until twelve perſons be drawn who ſhall appear, and after all cauſes of challenge be allowed as fair and indifferent, and the ſaid twelve ſo firſt drawn and appearing, and approved as indifferent, their names being marked in the pannel, and they being ſworn, ſhall be the jury to try the ſaid cauſe. And the names of the perſons ſo drawn and ſworn ſhall be kept apart by themſelves in ſome other box to be kept for that purpoſe, till ſuch jury ſhall have given in their verdict and the ſame is recorded, or until the jury ſhall by leave of the Court, or conſent of the parties, be diſcharged; and then the ſame names ſhall be rolled up again and returned to the former box, there to be kept with the other names remaining at that time undrawn, and ſo, toties quoties, as long as any cauſe remains then to be tried.

Provided always, and be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That if any cauſe ſhall be brought on to be tried in any Court of Niſi Prius, before the jury in any other cauſe ſhall have brought in their verdict or be diſcharged, it ſhall and may be lawful for the Court to order twelve of the reſidue of the ſaid parchments or papers, not containing the names of any of the jurors who ſhall not ſo have brought in their verdict or be diſcharged, to be drawn in ſuch manner as is aforeſaid for the trial of the cauſe which ſhall be ſo brought on to be tried.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid That every perſon or perſons whoſe name or names ſhall be ſo drawn as aforeſaid, and who ſhall not appear after being openly called three times (due proof by oath of the Sheriff, or ſome other credible perſon, that ſuch perſon ſo making default had been lawfully ſummoned) ſhall forfeit and pay for every ſuch default in not appearing upon call as aforeſaid (unleſs ſome reaſonable cauſe of his abſence be proved by oath or affidavit to the ſatisfaction of the Judge who tries the ſaid cauſe) ſuch fine or fines, not exceeding the ſum of ten pounds, and leſs than the ſum of three pounds, as the ſaid Judge ſhall think reaſonable to inflict or aſſeſs for ſuch default; which fine the ſaid Judge is hereby authoriſed and required to order the Sheriff of the county to levy and collect; and the Sheriff or other officer ſhall ſummon each of the ſaid jurors at leaſt ten days before the ſaid Courts of Oyer and Terminer, General Goal Delivery and Niſi Prius.

Provided always, and be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That if a ſufficient number of the perſons ſo ſummoned to ſerve as jurors ſhall not appear at any of the ſaid Courts, or by reaſon of challenges, or otherwiſe, there ſhall not be a ſufficient number of them for the trial of any indictment, proſecution or action, depending in the ſaid Court, then, and in ſuch caſe, the jury ſhall be filled up, by order of the Judge, de tales circumſtantibus, to be returned by the Sheriff, unleſs he ſhall be a party, or intereſted, or related to any party or perſon intereſted in ſuch proſecution or action; and in any of which caſes to be returned by the Coroner, unleſs he be a party, or intereſted, or related to any party or perſon intereſted therein; and in any of theſe caſes to be returned by a proper and indifferent perſon, to be appointed by the Judge for that purpoſe; and ſuch perſons are hereby required to appear and ſerve as jurors at the ſaid Courts accordingly, under the penalties aforeſaid.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That whenever the plaintiff or defendant in any cauſe depending in the ſaid Court ſhall judge a view of the lands or tenements in diſpute to be neceſſary, it ſhall be lawful, without motion, for either of the parties, on application to the Clerk of the ſaid Court, within ten days from the return of the writ, to have a rule for that purpoſe entered on the docket, which ſaid rule the Clerk is hereby required to enter, on the application aforeſaid; and that an indorſement ſhall be made by the Clerk on the venire facias, that a view is ordered therein: And if there ſhould be more than one venire facias with a view returnable to the ſame Court of Niſi Prius, the Clerk ſhall number the ſame in numerical order, according to the reſpective times or periods of bringing the ſeveral actions, wherein the ſaid writs of venire facias with a view may be iſſued, beginning with the action or ſuit that was firſt brought, and ſo on progreſſively.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That when any writs of venire facias iſſuing out of the ſaid Court, with directions for a view indorſed thereon, ſhall come to the hands of the Sheriff, he ſhall execute the ſame by taking, on the view of No. 1, at leaſt ſix of the firſt mentioned twelve on the liſt of jurors to be returned as aforeſaid; and on the view of the venire facias No. 2, at leaſt ſix of the ſecond twelve; and ſo on of Numbers 3 and 4 of ſaid writs of venire facias with view: And if more than four writs of venire facias, with directions for a view, ſhould come to his hands, returnable to the ſame Court, the Sheriff ſhall take, on the view of No. 5, at leaſt ſix of the firſt mentioned twelve on the liſt of jurors, to be returned as aforeſaid, and ſhall proceed in the ſame manner, according to the numerical order of the ſaid writs of venire facias with a view, until the whole ſhall be compleated.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That when any cauſe ſhall be brought on to trial, wherein a view hath been had as aforeſaid, ſuch of the jurors as have been on the view, and ſhall appear, ſhall be firſt ſworn upon the jury to try the ſaid cauſe before any drawing as aforeſaid, and ſo many only ſhall be drawn to be added to the viewers who appear, as ſhall, after all defaulters and challenges allowed, make up the number of twelve to be ſworn for the trial of ſuch cauſe.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the Sheriff, or other officer to whom the return of proceſs ſhall belong, ſhall from time to time enter or regiſter in a book to be kept for that purpoſe, the names of ſuch perſons as ſhall be ſummoned and ſhall ſerve as jurors at the ſaid Courts of Oyer and Terminer, General Goal Delivery and Niſi Prius, together with their additions and places of abode alphabetically, and alſo the times of their ſervices, and every perſon ſo ſummoned, and attending or ſerving as aforeſaid, ſhall (upon application by him made to ſuch Sheriff, Under Sheriff, or other officer) have a certificate, teſtifying ſuch his attendance, or ſervice done, which certificate the ſaid Sheriff, Under Sheriff, or other officer, is hereby directed and required to give without fee or reward; and the ſaid book ſhall be tranſmitted by ſaid Sheriff, Under Sheriff, or other officer, to his or their ſucceſſor or ſucceſſors from time to time.

And for preventing abuſes by Sheriffs, Under Sheriffs, or other perſons concerned in ſummoning or returning jurors under this act, Be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That no perſon ſhall be returned to ſerve as a juror at any Court of Oyer and Terminer, General Goal Delivery and Niſi Prius, according to the directions aforeſaid (caſes of ſpecial juries and trials at bar excepted) who hath ſerved within the ſpace of one year in any county as a juror at the ſaid Courts: And if any Sheriff ſhall wilfully tranſgreſs therein, any Judge of Oyer and Terminer, General Goal Delivery and Niſi Prius may, and he is hereby required, on examination and proof of ſuch offence in a ſummary way, to ſet a fine or fines upon every ſuch offender as he ſhall think meet, not exceeding five pounds for any one ſuch offence.

AND WHEREAS it is juſt and reaſonable that jurors, attending or ſerving at the ſaid Courts of Oyer and Terminer, General Goal Delivery and Niſi Prius, ſhould receive ſome compenſation for their time and trouble therein: Be it therefore further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That whenever any verdict ſhall or may be taken in the Court of Niſi Prius, the plaintiff or defendant, in whoſe favour the ſame is given, ſhall forthwith pay to the Clerk of the ſaid Court thirty ſhillings (which ſhall be taxed with the coſts, and afterwards repaid by the party againſt whom ſuch verdict was given, for the uſe and benefit of the party that ſhall ſo advance it) and that the ſaid money ſo collected, and ſuch other money as may be paid by defendant or defendants that ſhall be tried in the Courts of Oyer and Terminer and General Goal Delivery, ſhall be a fund to defray the expences of the ſaid jurors attending on ſaid Courts; and if the ſame ſhould prove deficient, the Clerk of the ſaid Court is hereby required to make out an order in favour of each juror, for ſuch balance as may be due for his attendance aforeſaid, on the Treaſurer of the county, who is hereby authoriſed and required to pay the ſame; and that the Judge ſhall, after examining what money has been received as aforeſaid, ſign the ſaid orders; and that each juror ſhall be allowed, for every day's attendance at ſaid Courts, and no more.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful for any plaintiff or plaintiffs, defendant or defendants, in any action or ſuit depending or to be brought in ſaid Court, to enter a rule for a jury to be ſtruck, before the Clerk of the reſpective county where the cauſe hath been brought, for the trial of any iſſue joined in any of the ſaid cauſes, and triable by a jury of twelve men in ſuch manner as ſpecial juries have been and uſually are ſtruck, which ſaid jury ſo ſtruck ſhall be the jury returned for the trial of the ſaid iſſue.

Provided always, and be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid jury or juries ſhall be ſtruck before the expiration of thirty days (incluſive) from the return of the original writ in the ſaid cauſe or cauſes, and that the party applying for and obtaining ſuch rule ſhall ſerve a copy thereof on the oppoſite attorney, and ſerve him alſo at the ſame time with a copy of the liſt of the jurors to be ſtruck, and notice to attend to ſtrike the ſame at the office of the ſaid Clerk, within four days at moſt from the ſervice of the ſaid notice.

And provided always, and be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the perſon or party who ſhall apply for ſuch jury to be ſtruck as aforeſaid ſhall bear and pay the fees for ſtriking ſuch jury, and ſhall not have any allowance for the ſame upon taxation, unleſs the Judge who tries the cauſe ſhall certify that it was a cauſe proper to be tried by a ſpecial jury.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the ſalary of each of the Puiſne Judges of the ſaid Court ſhall be per annum, payable quarterly as heretofore, by draughts on the State Treaſury; and that the ſalaries of the Judges of the Supreme Court ſhall be, and the ſame are hereby declared to be fixed and ſettled on them and their ſucceſſors, during their continuance in their ſeveral and reſpective commiſſions.

AND WHEREAS the practice of iſſuing writs of habeas corpus and certiorari, to remove cauſes from the Courts of Common Pleas after the ſame are at iſſue, and frequently when the jury are at the bar, and the cauſes are on the point of being tried, is miſchievous, and tends to the delay of juſtice: Be it therefore enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That no writ of habeas corpus or certiorari, for the removal of any cauſe or ſuit from the Courts of Common Pleas, or any of them, into the Supreme Court, ſhall be received or allowed by the Judge or Judges of the ſaid Courts of Common Pleas, or any of them, to whom the ſame ſhall be delivered (but that the ſaid Judge or Judges ſhall and may proceed in ſuch cauſe as if no ſuch writ had been delivered to him or them) unleſs the ſaid writ or writs be delivered on or before the laſt day of the term in which iſſue is joined.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That whenever any cauſe or ſuit ſhall be removed into the Supreme Court from any Court of Common Pleas, every cauſe or ſuit ſo removed ſhall be carried on in the Supreme Court after ſuch removal, under and ſubject to the ſame rules and regulations as if the ſame had been originally commenced in the Supreme Court.

AND WHEREAS the maxim of the law, THAT THE STATE PAYS NO COSTS, hath been juſtly conſidered as a remnant of the tyranny of ancient prerogative, and hath been attended in numerous inſtances with great oppreſſion and injuſtice to ſuch perſons as have been found not guilty by their country: AND WHEREAS it is highly expedient that a maxim ſo repugnant to the principles of reaſon and juſtice ſhould be aboliſhed in the commonwealth of Pennſylvania: Be it therefore further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That in all proſecutions in the name and on the behalf of the commonwealth or ſtate of Pennſylvania, for any offence or crime whatever, and on which the perſon or perſons ſo proſecuted ſhall be acquitted by the grand jury, there ſhall not be any coſts or court charges paid by the perſon or perſons ſo acquitted, but that all and every ſuch perſon and perſons ſhall be entirely exempted and diſcharged from paying any coſts or court charges whatever.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That where any perſon or perſons ſhall or may be acquitted by the pettit jury on any proſecution as aforeſaid, the perſon or perſons ſo acquitted by the pettit jury ſhall be entirely exempted and diſcharged from paying any coſts or court charges whatever, unleſs the Court before whom ſuch perſon or perſons may be tried ſhall certify that there was reaſonable or probable cauſe of proſecution.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That in all caſes where any perſon or perſons ſhall or may be acquitted by the grand jury, and in all caſes where any perſon or perſons ſhall or may be acquitted by the pettit jury (and in which the Court ſhall not certify that there was reaſonable and probable cauſe of proſecution) the coſts of the ſeveral officers of the Court, and all ſuch other charges as have heretofore been paid by perſons ſo acquitted, ſhall be paid and ſatisfied out of the treaſury of the county in which the perſon or perſons ſhall happen to be ſo as aforeſaid proſecuted and acquitted.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the Court before which ſuch perſon or perſons ſhall be tried and acquitted as aforeſaid ſhall ſign an order or draught on the treaſurer of the county, requiring him to pay all ſuch bills of coſts, after the Court ſhall have examined and taxed the ſame: And the ſaid treaſurer is hereby required and enjoined to pay the ſaid bills of coſts which ſhall be allowed by the Court in manner aforeſaid.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That on the removal of any cauſe or ſuit by any plaintiff or plaintiffs from any Court of Common Pleas to the Supreme Court, wherein ſpecial bail hath been entered below, the ſame bail ſhall be and continue, notwithſtanding ſuch removal, to all intents and purpoſes; and the Clerk ſhall make out a copy of the entry of ſuch bail, and tranſmit the ſame with the record to the Supreme Court.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the Judges of the Supreme Court, and the Juſtices of the Courts of Common Pleas in the ſeveral counties in this commonwealth, ſhall not permit or ſuffer the Clerk of the Supreme Court to practice as an Attorney in any of the ſaid Courts, or to advocate any cauſe or cauſes before them, or any of them.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the coſt of the original writ and ſummons in the Supreme Court ſhall be double the coſt of the ſame in the Court of Common Pleas, and that all other fees in the ſaid Supreme Court ſhall be the ſame as heretofore.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the Supreme Executive Council ſhall appoint and commiſſionate ſome ſuitable perſon to be Chief Juſtice of the Courts of Common Pleas for the counties of Philadelphia, Bucks and Cheſter; and ſome other ſuitable perſon to be Chief Juſtice of the Courts of Common Pleas for the counties of Berks, Northampton and Northumberland; and ſome other ſuitable perſon to be Chief Juſtice of the Courts of Common Pleas for the counties of Lancaſter, York and Cumberland; and ſome other ſuitable perſon to be Chief Juſtice of the Courts of Common Pleas for the counties of Bedford, Weſtmoreland and Waſhington; and that they ſhall alſo appoint and commiſſionate two other ſuitable perſons, reſiding in the ſeveral and reſpective counties aforeſaid, to be Aſſiſtant Juſtices, in their ſeveral and reſpective counties, to the Chief Juſtice of the ſaid counties; and any two of the Juſtices aforeſaid are hereby enabled to hold Courts of Common Pleas in the ſeveral and reſpective counties for which they ſhall be ſo appointed and commiſſionated.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Courts of Common Pleas, and each and every of them, and each and every Juſtice of the ſaid Courts, in their ſeveral and reſpective counties, ſhall have and exerciſe, and they hereby are veſted with all the power, authority and juriſdiction, which Juſtices of the Courts of Common Pleas have heretofore poſſeſſed and exerciſed, or are entitled to poſſeſs and exerciſe by the laws of this commonwealth; and ſhall be Juſtices of the Orphans Court in their ſeveral and reſpective counties; and the ſaid Chief Juſtices ſhall and may take acknowledgments of all or any deed or deeds of lands and tenements, ſituated and lying within any of the three counties reſpectively aſſigned to them.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the Courts of Quarter Seſſions ſhall not poſſeſs or exerciſe any of the powers of Courts of Common Pleas, or Orphans Courts, but ſhall retain and continue to exerciſe all the other powers and juriſdictions veſted in them by the laws of this commonwealth; and every Juſtice of the Peace ſhall have authority to proceed in caſes of debt not exceeding five pounds, under and ſubject to the ſame regulations as by law heretofore eſtabliſhed.

Provided always, and be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That nothing in this act contained ſhall hinder or prevent any of the ſaid Juſtices of the Courts of Common Pleas from being elected or appointed to be Juſtices of the Peace, and acting as ſuch.

And provided alſo, and be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That no Juſtice of the Court of Common Pleas ſhall have authority to proceed in caſes of debt not exceeding five pounds, unleſs he be alſo a Juſtice of the Peace.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the Courts of Quarter Seſſions ſhall be holden and kept four times every year in each county, on the Mondays in the reſpective weeks in which they have heretofore been holden; and the Courts of Common Pleas ſhall be holden and kept in the ſeveral and reſpective counties on the Wedneſdays following the Mondays whereon the Quarter Seſſions ſhall be reſpectively holden.

Provided always, and be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the Courts of Quarter Seſſions may be kept and continued for the ſpace of three days (incluſive) in any county within this commonwealth, and no longer.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the ſalary or annual pay of the Chief Juſtice of the Courts of Common Pleas for the counties of Philadelphia, Bucks and Cheſter, ſhall be and of each of the Aſſiſtant Juſtices in ſaid counties

And the ſalary or annual pay of the Chief Juſtice of the counties of Lancaſter, York and Cumberland, ſhall be and of each of the Aſſiſtant Juſtices in ſaid counties

And the ſalary or annual pay of the Chief Juſtice of the counties of Berks, Northampton and Northumberland, ſhall be and of each of the Aſſiſtant Juſtices in ſaid counties

And the ſalary or annual pay of the Chief Juſtice of the counties of Bedford, Weſtmoreland and Waſhington, ſhall be and of each of the Aſſiſtant Juſtices in ſaid counties payable by draughts, quarterly, in the like manner as the ſalaries of the Judges of the Supreme Court; and the ſaid ſalaries, ſo as above ſettled on the Juſtices of the Courts of Common Pleas, are hereby declared to be fixed during their continuance in their ſeveral and reſpective commiſſions.

And in order to increaſe the public revenue, without any new impoſition on the people, and thereby the better to enable the commonwealth to pay the ſalaries above mentioned, Be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the Prothonotaries of the ſeveral counties herein after mentioned ſhall pay, out of the fees of their offices, yearly and every year, from and after the paſſing of this act, into the State Treaſury, in two equal payments, the ſums herein after mentioned; that is to ſay,

The Prothonotary of the Court of Common Pleas for the city and county of Philadelphia ſhall pay the ſum of

The Prothonotary of the Court of Common Pleas for the county of Cheſter the ſum of

The Prothonotary of the Court of Common Pleas for the county of Lancaſter the ſum of

The Prothonotary of the Court of Common Pleas for the county of Cumberland the ſum of

The Prothonotary of the Court of Common Pleas for the county of Berks the ſum of

The Prothonotary of the Court of Common Pleas for the county of York the ſum of

The Prothonotary of the Court of Common Pleas for the county of Weſtmoreland the ſum of

And if the Prothonotaries above mentioned, or any of them, ſhall neglect, for the ſpace of ſix months, to make any of the payments required by this act, it ſhall and may be lawful for the Supreme Executive Council, and they are hereby directed, to remove from his office every Prothonotary ſo neglecting to make ſuch payment for the ſpace aforeſaid; and the Treaſurer of the ſtate ſhall from time to time give information to the Supreme Executive Council, of ſuch Prothonotary as ſhall neglect as aforeſaid for ſix months to make the payments required by this act.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That in caſe of removal, reſignation, or death of any of the Prothonotaries aforeſaid, he, his heirs, executors, or adminiſtrators, as the caſe may be, ſhall pay ſuch ſums as may be due and not accounted for.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That if the plaintiff or plaintiffs ſhall neglect to bring his or their cauſe or cauſes to trial in any of the ſaid Courts of Common Pleas, the ſaid Courts are hereby reſpectively required, without any motion for that purpoſe on the part of the defendant or defendants, at the eighth term (incluſive) from and after the bringing or commencing the ſaid ſuit or action, to give judgment as in caſe of nonſuit; and that ſuch judgment or judgments ſhall have only the force and effect of judgment on nonſuit, and no other force and effect; and the Court which gives ſuch judgment ſhall award execution againſt the plaintiff or plaintiffs for the coſts, as in caſe of nonſuit.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That ſo much of an act, entituled "An act for raiſing and collecting of money "on the ſpecified articles therein mentioned, for the ſupport of "government, and for other purpoſes therein mentioned," as relates to an aſſeſſment or tax impoſed on writs iſſued out of the Prothonotaries offices therein mentioned, is hereby repealed and made void from and after the paſſing of this act.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That ſo much of any former laws of this commonwealth, as is contradictory to this act, and no more, is hereby repealed and made void.

LONDON.

Sept. 2. A gentleman, who came to town yesterday from Paris, says, that great preparations were making in that city for a general rejoicing on the signing the definitive treaty; that the Dutch Ambassador is much chagrined at not being able to prevail on the Court of France to put off signing it a few days longer.

The troubles in America have already one beneficial consequence towards this country; they have put a period, at least for a time, to the madness of emigration; for who would fly from a rock to build on sand.

It is said with confidence, that the French propose that the English shall be put in possession of Trincomale, as a douceur for obtaining their connivance at France's possessing the Cape of Good Hope.

This day the definitive treaties between Great-Britain, France, Spain and the United States of America, are to be signed at Paris ---On the part of Great-Britain it is a day of humiliation---She confirms the Independence of her own subjects, and treats with them as Sovereign States.

Sept. 9. We have been informed that the order for publicly proclaiming peace issued yesterday, has been countermanded by his Majesty, and the declaration put off for a few days.

The ratification of the Definitive Treaty of Peace is, the ratification of their seats in the Cabinet to the present Ministry. They have now put it out of the power of their snarling enemies to say aught against them; and the people, una voce, must cry "May the King live long, and may the Whig interest ever sit at the helm of public affairs."

The Custom house duties have already encreased surprisingly. The augmentation in the amount has, we understand, been much more than in the same short period, after the last peace.

About four years ago, a Mr. French sent a challenge to a Mr. Wilken. Mr. Wilken met him in the field, and asked him how many children he had—Mr. French replied "one." I have eight, said the other, and you must go home and get seven more before we can fight on an equal footing.

Sept. 11. The value of American lands must be finally fixed by the nature and firmness or versatility of their government, and the proportion that agriculture there will bear to commerce. This is the criterion. All else is but an idle dream.

Numbers are gaping to hear what are the express terms of the Definitive Treaty---This employs a host of wonderers; yet when the matter in question is known, it will probably prove a nine days wonder, and dropping into oblivion, "mingle with the crowd that went before it," while "NIL admirari" will be the maxim of the philosophical politician.

The Definitive Treaties and the East-India affairs will be the first object of Parliamentary altercation. The strength or weakness of opposition will be evinced on the discussion of those subjects; and the doubts respecting the permanency of the present singular junction will be resolved.

Sept. 12. Tuesday night David Hartly Esq; arrived in town from Paris with the Definitive Treaty of Peace with America.

Extract of a letter from Paris, Sept. 4.

"The Commercial Treaty, which has been so long negociating with America, is vanished in smoke. What were the grounds on which the difference turned between England and America, and which prevented the conclusion of the treaty, is not easy to discover; but some of them at least may be ascertained; though the the British Ministers may not, perhaps, be very ready to avow them. Early in the negociation, Dr. Franklin asked Mr. Hartly, if any mention was made of Ireland in his instructions, and if he had any power to name, and specifically include, that kingdom in the treaty? Mr. Hartly did not seem prepared for such a question: he answered it however in the negative: Dr. Franklin upon this observed, that as Ireland was now avowedly an independent kingdom, it might hereafter be made a question, how far she could be understood to be included, without being named in a treaty entered into by Great-Britain—The Portugal business, he said, shewed the necessity of naming Ireland in the articles, in order to remove all grounds for disputing hereafter, either on the part of England or of America, how far Ireland could be bound by the act of a British Ministry, or whether she could be bound at all by it; he was therefore of opinion, that Mr Hartly should write to his Court for instructions on this head. Whether the English Commissioner did so or not, you can learn better at home than from me; but certain it is, that Mr. Hartly never after mentioned one word upon the subject of Ireland to the American Minister; so that it is fair to conclude either that he did not write a word about the the business to his Court, which is excessively improbable, or that the Cabinet of St. James's do not like the idea, and refused to comply with the Dr's requisition; be that however as it may, the negociation with America is at an end."

PHILADELPHIA, November 12.

Thursday last the Council and General Assembly of this Commonwealth proceeded to the choice of President and Vice-President of the Supreme Executive Council, when his Excellency JOHN DICKINSON, Esq; and the Honorable JAMES EWING, Esq; were unanimously re-elected to those important and elevated stations, for the ensuing year.

The day was observed with the usual formalities and rejoicings, viz. the display of the State flag on Market-street wharff, the firing the United States salute by a company of the militia train of artillery, an elegant entertainment, the ringing of bells, &c. &c.

It is with great pleasure that we mention the arrival in this port of the ship Olive Branch, Captain Falconer, from London.

The ship Commerce, West, arrived at Boston from Lisbon, about the beginning of October, in lat. 36, 58. long. 69, fell in with the ship N. S. Dasneceffidades St. Jose and Almes, Captain Joze Alves Ramos, which had lost her mainmast and foretopmast in a gale of wind. She was bound from Lisbon for Philadelphia.

Nov. 3. §

STATE of PENNSYLVANIA.
In GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

Monday, November 10, 1783. A. M.

The Committee, appointed for the purpose November 7, reported a copy of the Speech, as delivered in this House by his Excellency the President.

Ordered, That the same be inserted on the Minutes,

Extract from the Minutes,

PETER Z. LLOYD, Clerk of the General Assembly.

GENTLEMEN,

I ENTREAT that you will be pleased to accept my thanks, for the appointment to the Presidency which you have now made, and my assurances, that I will try to discharge the duties of that station in the best manner I am able.

Power, derived from the affection of fellow-citizens, is truly valuable----especially to a person, who, during the whole course of his life, could never be induced to value any other kind of power.

Yet, whatever pleasure or distinction arises from this evidence of your regard, I cannot but reflect how very short-lived they must prove, unless, by fidelity, integrity and diligence, I strenuously endeavour to vindicate your proceeding, and thereby to aid my character.

These qualities shall not be wanting; and, as to deficiencies in other respects, it is a strong encouragement to me, that I can confidently rely for assistance upon your wisdom.

Indeed! a vast work remains to be performed, and that requires all the virtues and abilities of every person in the principal departments to accomplish.

To their filial cares is committed a great and respectable state, just delivered from the distresses of war, and yet bleeding with many wounds.

From them, the people of Pennsylvania expect measures to evince, that the late disputes have been for a noble opportunity of promoting the general good, and not for the poor purpose of gratifying inferior designs. Guided by these laudable views, they will generously disdain any other revenge, than that of diffusing benefits among their opponents themselves. Their enlightened and benevolent minds will readily determine---that he is an enemy to the state, who, in a public post, treats a fellow-citizen as an enemy to himself.

Upon them, among the rulers of America, is turned the attention of Europe, earnestly observing, whether, on this continent, we know how to use, as well as how to acquire empire---whether we are to be envied and admired, or pitied and despised---and in fine, whether, left as we are to ourselves, upon this fair and solemn trial before the nations of the earth, the cause of * Republican Liberty shall in our instance be justified by its effects, or shall be condemned, as the introducer of more calamities than it removes.

To them is delegated the sacred trust, of realizing the blessings of freedom, for which so many brave men have suffered---fought---or died---and of improving to the best advantage the signal favors, which Providence hath condescended to bestow upon the inhabitants of this land.

Motives so grand and so venerable must have their proper influence; and stability of government, good laws, and a veneration for them, all of which are indispensibly necessary, will afford reasonable expectations of other felicities.

But these can never be attained in a commonwealth, unless the members of the community are impressed with an affectionate regard for each other; because, in such governments peculiarly, their private dispositions are perpetually operating on public affairs. Every individual, therefore, should constantly remember, that he is a citizen, as well as a man----that Heaven itself has formed the relationship, with all its obligations, by endowing him with reason, and framing his nature for civil society----that of course he ought to love his compatriots, and be as anxious and active for their combined happiness and honor, as for his own welfare----and he should firmly believe that this is his true interest, as well as his inviolable duty.

It was by thinking and acting in this manner, that the citizens of Greece and Rome in their better days elevated those republics to the eminent rank in fame, which, even at this distant period of time, engages the universal applause of mankind. The body of the people was animated as it were by one soul. From this simple origin sprung their astonishing atchievements. Nor should it be forgot, that it was by ceasing thus to think and act, that their degenerate posterity resigned themselves to feuds and discords, and with mutual malice undermining that strength which all their foreign foes could not conquer, at length sunk together, miserably employed in hateing and being hated, into irrecoverable confusion and utter destruction.

More recent, and equally mournful, examples of this political truth might be adduced. The same vices, with a baneful regularity, produce in different regions and ages the same consequences; and the factions and divisions among citizens are still found, as by a natural progression, to change the enraged and unreasonable adversaries, blindly intent only on the success of their own ignoble quarrels, into humble and sympathising companions in the drudgeries of a servitude, which they have thus conspired to entail one upon another. Let us not, with presumptuous rashness, suppose that we can imitate their fault, without experiencing their fate.

Words cannot express how much our guilt must, in perpetrating the like crimes, exceed that of the republics before mentioned. Their misfortunes, and the causes of them, have been providentially transmitted to us as faithful warnings, in records of indisputable authority----all the succeeding improvements of the human mind are freely presented to us, for our use---and to us is sent the light of a holy religion, breathing the spirit of peace and benignity, perfectly explaining the duties of life, and inviting to an observance of them, by the most affecting and sublime considerations.

To offend against such knowledge, thus munificently offered to our use, is despitefully to reprobate the best gifts of the bountiful creator, and impiously to renounce that kind and social temper, which his immutable law makes the foundation of all private and public happiness.

My ardent desire is, that the people of this state may be governed by better sentiments, so that every one, stedfastly looking to the glorious object that under the dear name of country comprehends the concerns of all, and conscientiously consulting its advancement, the collected force of the whole may be uniformly exerted to supply that common fund of prosperity, from which each particular is to draw his share. May the divine goodness confirm these resolutions in us, and grant that there be no contention among us, but who shall best serve Pennsylvania.

For my part, I cannot but consider the union of those who are devoted to the principles of the revolution, as of special importance; and as I shall ever cultivate the friendship of such men, I have not the least doubt but I shall always receive their support.

To conclude------

Gentlemen,

I beg you to be entirely persuaded, that my lips speak a language which my heart dictates, when I say----that I wish for no greater happiness in this world, than to be useful to my fellow-citizens, and for no higher honour, than to be esteemed by them.

* "I make it my humble and earnest prayer-----that America may be free from those calamities, which formerly proved in the mother country, how essential monarchy is to the enjoyment of constitutional liberty."

Speech of his Britannic Majesty on the 5*th of* December 1782, acknowledging the Independence of The United States.

ELIZABETH FERGUSSON.

N. B. The title is indisputable. ¶

A SCHOOL,

KEPT by the subscriber, near Walnut-street, in Third-street, opposite Pear-street, where youth are taught the English language, according to Louth and Sherridan's grammar rules; mercantile arithmetic and book-keeping, according to Dowling's system, which is allowed to be the most accurate method now extant in Europe; also geography, Euclid's elements of geometry, trigonometry, &c. with their application to mathematics.

As the subscriber has been several years employed in the tuition of youth, and can produce satisfactory credentials for conduct and ability, and being determined to confine himself to a small number of pupils, he flatters himself it will prove very advantageous to gentlemen who intend their children for mercantile business, to commit them to his care; his method of instruction being adapted to real trade, without confining youth to that unnecessary prolixity which retards their progress, so much practised in public seminaries.

As the subscriber was regularly bred to mercantile business, and several years in the practical part of book-keeping, in capital houses of trade in Europe, he would perfect young men in that useful science, or would post books, and settle partnership or other accounts reasonable.

An Evening School for young men kept at said place, by the public's humble servant,

§ 3 w. c 3 m. GEORGE FITZ GERALD.

To be SOLD at private SALE,
The following deſcribed Tracts of LAND ſituate in Uwchland townſhip, Cheſter county, about 30 miles from this city:

No. 1. CONTAINING about 220 acres, 20 of which are meadow; on this place are erected a large ſtone dwelling-houſe, kitchen and pump-houſe adjoining, an excellent ſtone barn with ſtables underneath, all in good order, a ſtone ſmith's ſhop and coal-houſe: Near the houſe is an excellent apple orchard, and a variety of pear and peach trees: The houſe is pleaſantly ſituated in a good neighbourhood, and one of the beſt ſtands for a ſtore in the county; on one end of this place is a ſmall ſtone houſe with a ſquared log kitchen, log barn, ſpring-houſe, &c. ſuitable for a tenant, or will make it convenient to divide the place.

No. 2. Adjoining the above, known by the name of the Red-Lion Tavern, having been many years occupied as ſuch; contains about 200 acres, a large proportion of which is good timber land, about 20 acres of meadow, moſt of which may be watered and made very good; on this place are two good orchards, the buildings are the tavern houſe and the buildings adjacent for carrying on that buſineſs: Near the above is a large ſtone houſe built ſo as to accommodate two families, and a large frame barn. The healthy, pleaſant and public ſituation of both the above plantations will always render them good ſtands for buſineſs, being at the junction of ſix public roads leading to different parts of the country. The annual election for the north-weſt diſtrict of Cheſter county has been held at the above tavern ſince the revolution.

No. 3. Adjoining the laſt deſcribed tract, contains about 150 acres, whereon is a ſquared log dwelling-houſe, barn and other out houſes, a good apple orchard, and about 15 acres of meadow; on this place is a conſiderable quantity of excellent timber land, within leſs than a mile of limeſtone, which renders it very valuable; ſeveral fields on the above farms have been limed to very good effect. They will be ſold all together or ſeperate as may beſt ſuit the purchaſer, poſſeſſion may be had early next ſpring. For terms apply to Doctor WHELEN, near the land, who will ſhew it to any perſon inclining to purchaſe, or to ISRAEL WHELEN or ISAAC WHELEN, Market-ſtreet, Philadelphia. † October 28, 1783.

RUN away from the ſubſcriber, living in Gwynedth townſhip, Philadelphia county, a ſervant Man, named WILLIAM GORDON, about 19 years of age, a chunky and pretty bold looking fellow, of a ſandy complexion; had on, when he went away, an old wool hat, light coloured linſey upper jacket, blue and white ſtriped linſey under ditto, tow linen trowſers, and a pair of ſhoes. Whoever takes up ſaid ſervant, and brings him home, ſhall have SIX DOLLARS reward, and reaſonable charges, paid by ¶ JACOB WISMER.

THE Golden Medical Cephalic Snuff, which by long experience has been found an effectual remedy for moſt diſorders of the head, to which it hardly ever fails giving immediate eaſe, and by frequent uſe prevents their return: It admirably opens and purges the head, ſtrengthens the nerves, revives the ſpirits, and has a moſt grateful aromatick ſmell: It removes drowſineſs, ſleepineſs and vapours, relieves dimneſs of the eyes, is excellent in curing recent deafneſs, and has been of great ſervice in hyſterick and paralytick complaints, and in reſtoring the memory when impaired by diſorders of the head: It is proper for all perſons who viſit the ſick, or go into unwholeſome rooms, hot climates, or unhealthy places, as it fortifies the head againſt noxious exhalations and infectious air. Numbers of perſons have experienced the happy effects of this Golden Medical Cephalic Snuff, and is preſcribed by the moſt eminent oculiſts and auriſts in Europe, in the courſe of their practice, as a capital medicine for the various diſorders of the eyes and ears: Printed directions on each bottle, for the uſe of the above ſnuff, price 5s.----May be had at the ſame place (price 3s. 9d. per box, and 3s. 9d. per bottle) the Britiſh Tooth Powder, and Tincture for the gums: It takes off all foulneſs from the teeth and gums, renders them very beautiful, perfectly faſtens ſuch as are looſe, prevents their decaying, and entirely cures the ſcurvy, and all diſorders of the gums.----

The true Italian Pomade de Venus, whoſe excellent virtues are well known in the great world for preventing the hair from falling, preſerving it in its priſtine vigour and colour, and even in caſe of baldneſs it cauſes the hair to grow thick and ſtrong (price 7. 6d. per pot.)

The moſt violent tooth-ach cured in a few minutes without drawing, by an eſſence which gives immediate eaſe therein. By applying this eſſence outwardly it will remove all kinds of ſwelling in the cheeks or pain in the ears, and is an abſolute cure for the head-ach if ever ſo violent: It likewiſe eaſes the rheumatic pains in any part of the body: It is ſo harmleſs, that it may at any time be made uſe of agreeable to the directions. This valuable eſſence is prepared and ſold in bottles, at 7s. 6d. each, with particular directions in print for uſing it.

Doctor Van Helmot's Specific Pills for the fever and ague, price 7s. 6d.----Dr. Hill's Eſſential Tincture of Golden Rod, a ſucceſsful medicine now uſed for the gravel and ſtone, price 15s. ---Dr. Hill's eſſence of water Dock, for the ſcurvy, leproſy and all obſtinate cutaneous diſorders, price 10s.----Turlington's Balſam---Wine and Spirit Bitters---Glauber Salts, Liquorice Ball---Cream of Tartar---Anderſon's Pill's, &c.---A neat Microſcope. ---Alſo Books, Stationary, Watch-Papers and other Curioſities.

NOTICE is hereby given to all perſons whom it may concern, That we, the ſubſcribers, being owners of land on Pettie's-Iſland (as ſaid iſland is now part of the State of New-Jerſey) intend to petition to the Legiſlature of ſaid State, at their next ſitting, to paſs a law to enable the owners of the ſaid Pettie's-Iſland to erect and make a ſufficient bank, and other water works, to prevent the tide from overflowing the ſame.

The following moſt important Reſolutions have been entered into by the Delegates of the VOLUNTEERS in Ireland; and as they bear ſo near a reſemblance to what firſt called forth the Spirit of America, we hold it indiſpenſibly requiſite to give them to the public. The Hibernian womb of Patriotiſm appears to teem with ſome great event, which perhaps is not at a very diſtant day of delivery.

At a meeting of Delegates of Volunteer corps, held at Dungannon, 8th September, 1783, Colonel James Stewart, of the Tyrone regiment, in the Chair, the following Reſolutions were all unanimouſly entered into:

1. RESOLVED unanimouſly, That Freedom is the indefeaſible birth-right of Iriſhmen and Britons, derived from the author of their being; and of which, no power on earth, much leſs a delegated power, hath a right to deprive them.

2. Reſolved unanimouſly, That they only are free, who are governed by no laws but thoſe to which they aſſent, either by themſelves in perſon, or by their repreſentatives freely choſen, ſubject to the controul and frequently returning into the common maſs of conſtituents.

3. Reſolved unanimouſly, That the majority of our Houſe of Commons is not choſen by the people, but returned by the mandate of Peers and Commoners, either for indigent boroughs, where ſcarcely any inhabitants exiſt; or conſiderable cities and towns where the elective franchiſe is veſted in a few; who are thus ſuffered to place the higheſt truſts of ſociety, againſt the intereſt and will of the many, in the hands of men, who ſeldom act as if they conſidered themſelves accountable for their conduct to the people.

4. Reſolved unanimouſly, That by the ancient conſtitution of Parliaments, elections for repreſentatives were for centuries annual, and in many inſtances more frequent, and the exerciſe of ſuffrage among freemen univerſal.

5. Reſolved unanimouſly, That every approach to thoſe fundamental principles, tends to a renovation, not an innovation, in the conſtitution.

6. Reſolved unanimouſly, That the elective franchiſe ought, of right, to extend to all thoſe, and thoſe only, who are likely to exerciſe it for the public good.

7. Reſolved unanimouſly, That the preſent inadequate repreſentation, and the long duration of parliaments, deſtroy that balance which, by our conſtitution, ſhould ſubſiſt between the three eſtates of the Legiſlature, render the Commons Houſe independent of the people, procure certain majorities in favour of every adminiſtration, and threaten either an abſolute monarchy, or that ſtill more odious government a tyrannical ariſtocracy.

8. Reſolved therefore, That the preſent imperfect repreſentation, and the long duration of parliaments, are unconſtitutional and intolerable GRIEVANCES.

9. Reſolved unanimouſly, That as the voice of the Commons of Ireland is no leſs neceſſary for every legiſlative purpoſe, than that of either the King or Lords, the people have a juſt and inherent right to correct the abuſes of repreſentation, whenever ſuch abuſes ſhall have ſo encreaſed as to rob them of their conſtitutional ſhare in their own government.

10. Reſolved unanimouſly, That it is the intereſt of parliament itſelf to effect a ſubſtantial reform, as the very exiſtence of that aſſembly muſt become precarious, when it ſhall loſe the confidence of the people, to whom originally it owed its creation, and from whom, alone, its powers were derived.

11. Reſolved unanimouſly, That we ſolemnly pledge ourſelves to each other, and to our country, to ſeek a ſpeedy and effectual redreſs of theſe our grievances, and to co operate with our fellow-ſubjects in every exertion neceſſary to obtain it.

We call for the aid of every upright ſenator, of every man, whether in Ireland or Great-Britain, who bears or wiſhes to acquire the title of a Freeman.

12. Reſolved unanimouſly, That we have attended with admiration to the noble, tho' hitherto ineffectual efforts, of thoſe illuſtrious characters and virtuous citizens, who in England and Scotland ſtrenuouſly labour to procure redreſs of ſimilar grievances. May the examples of ſiſter nations mutually animate the inhabitants of each to perſevere with unremitting ardour, until the glorious labour be finally compleated.

13. Reſolved unanimouſly, That a committee (of five perſons from each county) be now choſen by ballot, to repreſent this province in a Grand National Convention, to be held at noon in the Royal Exchange in the city of Dublin, on the 10th day of November next; to which we truſt each of the other provinces will ſend Delegates, to digeſt and publiſh "a plan of parliamentary reform," to purſue ſuch meaſures as may appear to them moſt likely to render it effectual---to adjourn from time to time, and convene provincial meetings, if found neceſſary.

The following gentlemen were accordingly elected, viz.

Antrim Delegates. Colonel O'Neil, Lieut. Col. Sharman, Col. Rowley, Capt. W. Todd Jones, Col. T. J. Jones.

Armagh. Earl of Charlemont, Lieut. Col. Brownlow, Sir Capel Molyneaux, Lieut. Col. Sir Walter Synott, Capt. James Dawſon.

Cavan. Lord Farnham, the Hon. J. J. Maxwell, Col. Patrick Savage, Capt. Gawin Hamilton.

Fermanagh. Col. Irewine, Col. Sir Arthur Brooke, Capt. A. C. Hamilton, Jaſon Hazard, Eſq; Capt. James Armſtrong.

Londonderry. Lord Biſhop of Derry, Col. Rt. Hon. Thomas Connoly, Col. Rt. Hon. Edward Cary, Capt. Leckey, Capt. Ferguſon, Capt. Frs. Saunderſon, Col. G. Montgomery, Capt. Henry Clements.

Down. Col. Robert Stewart, Capt. Mat. Forde, jun. Major Crawford.

Monaghan. Col. Ch. Powell Leſlie, Col. Frs. Lucas, Col. John Montgomery, Capt. William Forſter, Col. James Hamilton.

Tyrone. Col. Stewart, Lieut. Col. Montgomery, Col. James Alexander, Capt. Eccles, Lieut. Col. Charleton.

14. Reſolved unanimouſly, That it be an inſtruction to ſaid Committee, that the delegates from each county do prepare and carry with them to the National Convention, an account of all the cities, towns and boroughs in this province; the mode of election in ſuch as at preſent return members; as near as may be the proportionate number of proteſtant and Roman Catholic inhabitants in each; and a conjecture of their comparative properties.

15. Reſolved unanimouſly, That we are decided in opinion that the repreſentatives of the people ought not in future to conſent to any Bill of Supply for a longer term than twelve months, nor more than ſix months, until a complete redreſs of the aforeſaid grievances be obtained.

A ſpecific plan of Parliamentary reform being produced and read by the Committee of Correſpondence:

Reſolved unanimouſly, That ſaid plan be referred to the conſideration of the National Convention.

The addreſs of the firſt regiment of the Iriſh brigade, to the Chairman of this aſſociation, on the 15th of February, 1782, being read:

Reſolved unanimouſly, That this aſſociation entertain the moſt grateful ſenſe of the approbation of that reſpectable body; that we rejoice in the acceſſion of, and we will be happy in co-operating with ſuch liberal and patriotic men, in effecting the complete liberty and happineſs of the good people of this kingdom.

Reſolved unanimouſly, That the thanks of this meeting be preſented to Lieutenant Colonel Sharman, and the gentlemen of the Committee of Correſpondence, for their great trouble in collecting information on a Parliamentary reform, and for their abilities and zeal in digeſting matters for the meeting of this day.

Reſolved unanimouſly, That we lament that unavoidable buſineſs of conſequence prevented our late Chairman, Col. William Irwine, from attending this meeting, and that the thanks of this meeting be tranſmitted by our Secretary to Col. William Irwine, for his polite letter of excuſe for his non-attendance this day.

Reſolved unanimouſly, That the thanks of this meeting be preſented to the Lord Biſhop of Derry, for his attendance and aſſiſtance in the buſineſs of this day; for his warm attachment to the volunteer cauſe; and for proving himſelf the ſteady friend to the liberties of Ireland upon all occaſions.

Reſolved unanimouſly, That the ſincere thanks of this meeting be returned to the inhabitants of Dungannon, for their very polite conduct, and to the Dungannon battalion, for their vigilant conduct when on guard this day.

Colonel Robert Stewart having taken the Chair.

Reſolved unanimouſly, That the particular thanks of this meeting be preſented to Colonel J. Stewart, for his very great propriety of conduct in the Chair.

STATE OF NEW-YORK.

A Law paſſed at Poughkeepſie, 12th July, 1782, entituled, "An Act relative to debts due to perſons within the enemy's lines."

WHEREAS many of the inhabitants of this ſtate, who have not remained within the enemy's power, and who were indebted to others who did ſo remain, are now threatened with ſuits, and have it not in their power to recover from thoſe who are indebted to them, and remained within the power of the enemy.

Be it therefore enacted by the people of the ſtate of New-York, repreſented in ſenate and aſſembly, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the ſame, that all ſuits and proſecutions for any debt ariſing on ſimple contract, bill ſingle or penal, or any other obligation, mortgage, ſecurity or demand whatſoever, due by or from any perſon not within the enemy's power or lines, that has remained with, gone into, or has in conſequence of any law of this ſtate been ſent within the enemy's power or lines, already commenced, or which hereafter may be commenced, ſhall be ſtayed until the legiſlature ſhall make further proviſion in the premiſes, any law to the contrary whatever.

And whereas it is juſt and reaſonable, that proviſion ſhould be made for the relief of ſuch citizens of this ſtate, who having received in payment of debts to them paper currency, which at the time of ſuch payment was a legal tender, and which they might of right have paid, in diſcharge of any debts due by them, but which it was not in their power to pay to ſuch of their creditors, as have remained with, gone into, or were ſo ſent within the enemy's lines, and which money has ſince the receipt thereof depreciated in their hands, and whereas it is impoſſible to apply one general rule to all the variety of caſes which do or may ariſe.

Be it therefore enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That in every ſuit or proſecution, which ſhall be commenced after the legiſlature ſhall by law have declared that the neceſſity of ſtaying ſuch ſuits or proſecutions as aforeſaid does no longer exiſt, by any perſon who may have remained with the enemy, gone into them, ſent or to be ſent as aforeſaid unto them, againſt any perſon who has remained without the power of the enemy, it ſhall and may be lawful for the court in which ſuch ſuit ſhall be commenced or proſecuted, and the court is hereby required, on motion of the defendant or his attorney, to appoint three or five referrees, at the option of the court, to try the matter in controverſy, and the defendant ſhall, and hereby is allowed to plead before ſuch referrees any ſpecial matter, and if it ſhall appear to the ſaid referrees, or the major part of them, that the ſpecial matter alledged and proved by the defendant is of ſuch a nature, that in equity and good conſcience abatement ought to be made from any ſum or ſums due by ſuch defendant, the referrees ſhall by majority of voices determine the quantum of ſuch abatement, and having made their report and award in writing, ſhall return the ſame into court, and the court ſhall thereupon give judgment and order execution to iſſue in favour of the plaintiff, for the ſum ſo awarded to be due to the plaintiff. Provided that ſuch execution ſhall not be levied, until the expiration of three years next after the enemy ſhall be expelled from, or ſhall have abandoned the city of New-York.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful for every defendant to pay, in diſcharge of any debt ſo found due as aforeſaid, to ſuch plaintiff as aforeſaid, certificates or notes ſigned by any commiſſioner of loans of the United States, according to the value thereof, as ſettled by the continental ſcale of depreciation, or certificates for money due on loan by this ſtate, according to the value thereof aſcertained by law.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful for any perſon now without the power of the enemy, being a debtor to any perſon now within the power of the enemy, at any time after the enemy ſhall be expelled from, or ſhall have abandoned the city of New-York, and that the legiſlature ſhall have by law declared that ſuch ſuits as aforeſaid ſhall be no longer ſtayed, to cite his creditors before any court of law in this ſtate, to have a ſettlement and make payment, agreeable to the mode preſcribed by this act; and if the creditors ſhall refuſe to appear and come to trial within two terms next after ſuch citation, he ſhall be, and hereby is declared to be barred and precluded from recovering his ſaid debt, due or demand, or any part thereof.

Be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That any ſubject or ſubjects of this ſtate, not in the power or lines of the enemy, who are indebted by ſimple contract, bill ſingle or penal, or any other obligation, mortgage, ſecurity or demand whatever, to any perſon or perſons that have either remained with, gone into, or have in conſequence of any law of this ſtate been ſent within the enemies power or lines, for ſuch ſubjects of this ſtate not in the power or lines of the enemy, ſo indebted, ſhall be and hereby are diſcharged from any intereſt which may have become due on ſuch contract, bill, obligation, mortgage or ſecurities, ſince the firſt day of January 1776, to the firſt day of January which ſhall follow next after the concluſion of the preſent war, any law, uſage or cuſtom to the contrary notwithſtanding. Provided that nothing in this clauſe contained ſhall be deemed to operate as a diſcharge of any intereſt, which may have accrued on any ſuch bill, obligation, mortgage, or other ſecurity executed ſince the ſaid firſt day of January, 1776, provided nevertheleſs, that no perſon or perſons ſhall be allowed the benefit of this act, unleſs he, ſhe or they ſhall have firſt taken the oath of abjuration, and the oath of allegiance to this ſtate, and ſhall obtain a certificate ſigned by two reputable and well affected freeholders of this ſtate, one whereof ſhall be a judge of the inferior court of common pleas, of the county in which the perſon named in ſuch certificate ſhall reſide, certifying that he or ſhe is well attached to the freedom and independence of the United States of America, and have taken an active and decided part therein. And provided farther, that this act ſhall not extend to any debt or debts contracted or made, or hereafter to be made for the uſe of the ſtate, for the payment of which the faith thereof is pledged; and alſo provided farther, that nothing in this act contained ſhall be conſtrued to extend to any perſon that heretofore hath been, now is, or hereafter ſhall be a priſoner with the enemy.

BOSTON, November 3.

By Captain Doubleday, from Jamaica, we received papers to the 27th of September, they contain nothing very material. Captain Doubleday informs, that two days before he ſailed, an expreſs arrived there from England with poſitive inſtructions to the Governor, prohibiting any further commerce with the United States of America, which the mercantile intereſt of that iſland were highly diſpleaſed with, as they were in future to be ſupplied with lumber only from the flouriſhing government of Nova-Scarcity, and grain, cattle and horſes, from Canada. Thus the tyrant of Little Britain, having eyes, ſees not his own intereſt, and having no underſtanding, like Pharaoh of old, ſtill hardening his heart againſt the ſubjects of his own little iſland, till the mete he means to meaſure to others ſhall return on his own head, well meaſured, preſſed down and running over, when his own ſubjects will rejoice and ſay, Amen.

Extract of a letter from an American gentleman in London, to his friend in Boſton, dated Auguſt 28, 1783.

"The writers in the public papers here draw all their reſources from the unſettled ſtate of our finances. Could we but once eſtabliſh our national credit by permanent funds, we ſhould entirely baffle all the venom and ſpite which are daily publiſhed. Nothing makes us appear more ridiculous, than ſuffering our money to be exported in remittances for goods; a prohibition in this inſtance would force theſe iſlands in particular into ſhip building; and make them the principal means towards promoting our manufactories, and raiſing the prices of all articles of exportation; which would not only be attended with the beneficial conſequences of keeping the money among them; but would encourage the manufacturing of all articles for exports, promote the fiſhery, and make every other branch of buſineſs flouriſh. But taking our money for goods, and carrying it away in bulk, is ſo eaſy and convenient for foreigners, that no manufactures, or even our fiſhery, will ever be promoted by them. The American export has become a mere bye-word in London—even the ſcribblers in the papers laugh at our ſuffering our caſh to be thus drained from us, when the national character of America is ſuffering, from our pretended inability to diſcharge our public arrears."

HARTFORD, November 4.

We hear that the lower houſe of the Genral Aſſembly of this State have, in the courſe of their ſeſſions in October laſt, taken into conſideration the petition from the adjourned Convention, holden at Middletown on the 30th of September laſt, and have drawn up a ſtrong and ſpirited remonſtrance to Congreſs againſt commutation, &c. They have alſo ordered circular letters on the ſame ſubject to be wrote and forwarded to the ſiſter States.

We hear from Norwalk, that on Saturday night, the 18th of October laſt, in a terrible ſtorm, a veſſel was wrecked near Eaton's-Neck (Long-Iſland) the people were all ſaved except a lad; but what is moſt extraordinary and almoſt incredible, a woman fortunately made her eſcape on a hen coop which drifted on ſhore, on which ſhe was delivered of a child; the child was dead, but it is ſaid the woman is likely to do well.

NEW-LONDON, November 7.

Laſt Friday night a ſloop, burthen about 40 tons, run on Narraganſet beach in a thunder ſquall: All we can learn from her is, that ſhe is commanded by a French man, who ſays he ſailed from France about three months ago. It is ſaid he has a conſiderble ſum in dollars and a quantity of houſhold goods. He had his wife with him, who died juſt before they run athore, and was buried on land. The cargoe is ſaved.

Monday arrived here the brig Hancock, Capt. Hez. Perkins, from Amſterdam. He ſailed from the Texel the 28th of Auguſt, but meeting with a gale of wind put into Deal, in the Engliſh channel, from whence he had 48 days paſſage.

The ſhip Intrepid, Capt. Curwin, and a brig Capt. Kemp, both belonging to Baltimore, left the Texel with Captain Perkins, the former run on Goodwin's ſands, but got off and arrived at Ramſgate, ſomething leaky, where ſhe was repairing. There were 30 ſail of Dutch men of war at the Texel when ſhe ſailed.

PHILADELPHIA, November 19,

Extract of a Letter from an American Lady in England to her Friend in this City, dated September 6, 1783

"I ſincerely congratulate you on the peace, and hope that an event ſo glorious to the United States may be rendered permanent and laſting, by a free, well-ſettled government, and a perfect unanimity among yourſelves; that little private intereſts may always give way to public good; that all former party ſpirit and animoſity may be done away, and every one ſtrive who ſhall be the moſt forward in lending a helping hand to raiſe a fabrick that will be the wonder and admiration of the world. You have certainly greater advantages than any other people ever had, as you have all the ſtates and kingdoms of the earth before you, out of which I ſhould ſuppoſe you may be enabled to form a compleat ſyſtem of legiſlation. I hope you will moſt nobly diſappoint your Enemies, who are propheſying and enjoying the idea of cabals and commotions among yourſelves, and are waiting with the moſt anxious ſolicitude for ſuch an event to take place.-- It was laughable enough to ſee what pleaſure lighted up in the countenances of a certain deſcription of people, on hearing of the little riot you had in the city of Philadelphia with the ſoldiery; they magnified it to the annihilation of Congreſs, and the entire deſtruction of the Commonwealth----That they may be utterly diſappointed in their hopes, and that you may ſhew as much virtue and public ſpirit in ſettling your government, as you did in deſtroying the ſhackles of tyranny, is my ardent wiſh.

"The god of war ſeems not yet to be ſatiated with human gore; it's true, he has quitted the weſtern hemiſphere, to rage, moſt probably, with redoubled fury in the eaſtern: The Turks and Ruſſians ſeem determined on hoſtilities, and are making great preparations to deſtroy each other; no doubt before this gets to hand the bloody ſcene will commence, and many a victim be ſacrificed on the altar of cruelty and ambition. One would imagine that life was full enough of ills, that we need not take ſo much pains to make them greater—But who ſhall ſay to ambition, ſtop; or to tyranny, go no further? The heart of man, as the Apoſtle juſtly deſcribes it, is deceitful above all things, and deſperately wicked; and is it not daily within our obſervation, or at leaſt, too generally ſo (our Waſhington is a glorious exception) that when he is entruſted with power he makes uſe of it only to tyrannize over his fellow-creatures, nor ſtops at any thing till the decree of an all-wiſe Providence enthrals him in his own ſnares, and there leaves him to the anguiſh of diſappoinment and a wounded conſcience."

According to the laſt advices from Jerſey, the final evacuation of the city of New-York is to take place To-morrow, when Sir Guy Carleton is to deliver up the government to the civil authority of the State, and Colonel Henry Jackſon, with a regiment of continental troops, is to take poſſeſſion on behalf of the American forces.—However, it is ſaid, that the Britiſh troops who may unavoidably remain after that day, are to retire to Long-Island, where they will ſtay until veſſels can be provided to carry them off.

The ſame accounts mention that his Excellency General Waſhington was daily expected to viſit New-York, but in a private character.

Colonel Jackſon is the gentleman who had the honor of taking poſſeſſion of the city of Philadelphia, on the evacuation of it by Sir Henry Clinton.

We have the pleaſure of informing our readers, that the mail mentioned in our laſt paper to have been carried off by ſome villain from Princeton, was a few days ago found by a negroe boy in a meadow near that place. It does not appear that the fellow reaped any advantage from his roguery, as few or none of the letters were miſſing, but many of them wet and much abuſed, as it rained hard when he carried off the mail. The notes of the Treaſurer of the United States were all recovered, and are now in the poſſeſſion of that gentleman.

His Excellency William Livingſton, Eſq; is re-elected Governor of the State of New-Jerſey, for the enſuing year.

The Honorable the Council of Cenſors, now convened at the State-houſe in this city, have choſen the Honorable Frederick Auguſtus Muhlenberg, Eſq; their Preſident; and we hear John Roſe, Eſq; is appointed Secretary to that important Board.

We learn from Canada, and the frontiers of New-York, that the crops have entirely failed in thoſe parts, owing entirely to an exceeding and uncommon wet ſeaſon. In Canada the proſpect is dreadful, and unleſs they receive ſeaſonable and ample ſupplies of grain, &c. from other quarters of the continent, the depopulation of that province muſt inevitably be the conſequence.

There is a garriſon ſtill at St. John's, in Canada, conſiſting of two Britiſh regiments, ſome of Sir John Johnſton's corps, and other loyaliſts. There is alſo a ſmall garriſon at the Iſle of Noix and Point au Fare, in Lake Champlain.

It is exceeding difficult for any perſon who has been conſidered as a friend to America, to tranſact or negotiate any kind of buſineſs in Canada; but on the contrary thoſe who have been juſtly ſtigmatiſed as tories and diſaffected, have met with every aid and deſired ſucceſs. So that we find the ſubjects of Great-Britain ſtill retain their ill grounded animoſities and reſentments againſt the Americans who have had the reſolution to act honeſtly, and perſevere in a good cauſe.

Canada is overſtocked at preſent with ſolid coin, which is chiefly in the poſſeſſion of the generous and hoſpitable peaſants, the merchants and traders being all in a ſtate of bankruptcy—their credit being merely nominal; the Britiſh agents there having ſtopped payment for near a twelve month paſt.

The ſhip Commerce, Capt. Bell, on his paſſage from London, on the 23d of October, in lat. 40. long. 53. ſpoke with the brig Marſhall, Capt. Nathaniel Foulke, 8 weeks out from Amſterdam, for New-York, all well.

A few days ſince Major General Greene ſet off, by land, from this city for Newport.

The honorable teſtimony conferred on this gentleman by Congreſs, for his eminent ſervices in the cauſe of his country, muſt afford ſenſible pleaſure to thoſe generous minds who wiſh ever to ſee modeſt merit meet with a ſuitable return.

By the United States in Congreſs aſſembled, Oct. 18, 1783.

Reſolved, That two pieces of the field ordnance taken from the Britiſh army at the Cowpens, Auguſta or Eutaw, be preſented by the Commander in Chief of the armies of the United States, to Major General Greene, as a public teſtimonial of the wiſdom, fortitude and military ſkill, which diſtinguiſhed his command in the ſouthern department, and of the eminent ſervices which, amidſt complicated difficulties and dangers, and againſt an enemy greatly ſuperior in numbers, he has ſucceſsfully performed for his country; and that a memorandum be engraved on the ſaid pieces of ordnance, expreſſive of the ſubſtance of this reſolution.

Reſolved, That the Commander in Chief be informed, that Major General Greene hath the permiſſion of Congreſs to viſit his family at Rhode Iſland.

A SCHOOL,

KEPT by the ſubſcriber, near Walnut-ſtreet, in Third-ſtreet, oppoſite Pear-ſtreet, where youth are taught the Engliſh language, according to Louth and Sherridan's grammar rules; mercantile arithmetic and book-keeping, according to Dowling's ſyſtem, which is allowed to be the moſt accurate method now extant in Europe; alſo geography, Euclid's elements of geometry, trigonometry, &c. with their application to mathematics.

As the ſubſcriber has been ſeveral years employed in the tuition of youth, and can produce ſatisfactory credentials for conduct and ability, and being determined to confine himſelf to a ſmall number of pupils, he flatters himſelf it will prove very advantageous to gentlemen who intend their children for mercantile buſineſs, to commit them to his care; his method of inſtruction being adapted to real trade, without confining youth to that unneceſſary prolixity which retards their progreſs, ſo much practiſed in public ſeminaries.

As the ſubſcriber was regularly bred to mercantile buſineſs, and ſeveral years in the practical part of book-keeping in capital houſes of trade in Europe, he would perfect young men in that uſeful ſcience, or would poſt books, and ſettle partnerſhip or other accounts reaſonable.

From the LONDON EVENING POST.

AMONG the various methods practiſed by this country, in the courſe of the late war, none have been more ſteadily purſued, than falſe repreſentations with reſpect to our own tranſactions in America, and the diſpoſition and ſituation of the Americans. Our political ſcriblers have not been deficient in their exertions towards promoting an irreconcileable hatred between both countries; for which purpoſes theſe warriors of the quill have, throughout the war, been as active in their ſeveral departments as our moſt intrepid Admirals or Generals. In the preliminaries, I think hoſtilities ought to have ceaſed among theſe literary corps, as among the military. For, inſtead of a cordiality taking place between theſe parties, they ſeem rather diſpoſed to widen the breach, and to encreaſe the enmity which has too long prevailed between G. Britain and America. However, the Americans have little to fear from theſe plume gentry. As they have ſo long deceived this nation throughout the war, their lucubrations are conſidered only as whims of a diſappointed party. The many penſioned gentry which are feeding on this nation cannot, in gratitude, do leſs than ſay ſomething for a livelihood; and nothing can be thought more agreeable by them than vilifying the Americans, and caſting every ſevere reflection on a country which has ſpurned them from their former reſidence. Let any Briton impartially look over our papers publiſhed throughout this war, he will ſcarcely find a paragraph reſpecting the American war but what was a fabricated ſtory. All our fancied expectations, calculated to buoy up our ſpirits, have moſt commonly become the "baſeleſs fabric of a viſion" Throughout the war, how have we been duped by almoſt every paragraph. We have been kept in the greateſt ignorance, and never knew our real ſituation, till it became too intereſting to be any longer concealed. Even in our worſt misfortunes ſome fancied whim would ſtart from the brain of ſome hireling to keep up the deception, and make us perſiſt in our meaſures, tho' evidently contrary to every proſpect of ſucceſs. What great expectations have been formed, throughout the different periods of the war, from the expected diſunion of the States- - the diſbanding of the American army ---their want of reſources-- their paper currency. &c. &c. but, far from anſwering our ſanguine expectations, not one benefit has ariſen to ourſelves, nor one ill conſequence attended the Americans, from all theſe bugbears of our diſtempered brains. The Americans have ever aroſe ſuperior to all theſe fancied miſfortunes, and ought to have taught us, long ſince, the futility of our imaginary hopes.

Since peace is concluded, we cannot but think it an inſult on our underſtandings ſtill to endeavour to deceive this country by the many falſities which are daily publiſhed. We are now fed up with the idea that the Americans are in a ſtate of diſunion! That their independence will ſoon become a "ſound, and nothing elſe!" That their diſputes with Congreſs will finally deſtroy their confederation! And that then, like ſheep without a ſhepherd, they will be glad to return to the protection of this country; that their finances are in a miſerable ſituation; that their taxes are ſo exceſſive, as to occaſion anarchy and confuſion. In ſhort, that their independence, now they have acquired it, has already become too burthenſome for them to ſupport. All theſe pleaſing proſpects are now held out by our pen, ink and paper gentry; and they fooliſhly imagine the people of England ſtill retain their former folly of believing theſe abſurdities. What an abuſe on this nation, to have ſuch vain publications! We muſt ever continue the ridicule of the world, to ſoothe ourſelves at this time of day with ſuch deceptions; ſtill to hold up the idea, that the American independence is tottering from its baſis, when this country has ſo fully experienced the fortitude and perſeverance of the Americans in its ſupport. Can we be ſo blinded, as to fancy America will now reſign that independence, which has coſt them ſo much blood and treaſure? Why do we ſuppoſe their independence is of leſs value now, than when they were clad in arms to ſupport it? No, they will ever retain the glorious acquiſition; and, like men worthy of the bleſſing, they will continue in thoſe uniform meaſures which they purſued in acquiring it.

Let us only examine upon what ſlender foundation the vaſt expectations of our daily writers are ſupported:

The firſt is, the diſunion of the States. Can any ſuppoſition be more abſurd? What greater cauſe have we to expect they will become diſunited now, than when they firſt began their oppoſition to this country? A diſunion then might have been expected, when ſo many intereſts were to be conſulted; when the cauſe was not ſo univerſal; when Britain was conſidered as a parent State; when all their meaſures were to be planned, and purſued on a new footing; when their fears were alarmed as to the conſequences of a war; unallied with any foreign power; an army to raiſe, when an army of Britons were in the field to encounter; at this time do we find them diſunited? No, we behold them, in theſe alarming circumſtances, knit together like a band of brothers, and becoming formidable in their union. How idle, therefore, to ſay, in any circumſtances, a diſunion will cauſe their ruin?

The ſecond is, their diſputes with Congreſs! This is almoſt too trifling to need a ſerious conſideration. Can any nation exhibit a ſtronger proof of unlimited confidence placed in a ſovereignty, than the Americans have this war reſigned into the hands of Congreſs! Throughout the war, the power of Congreſs has never been diſputed: They have willingly given into their hands all the power which it was neceſſary they ſhould at that time exerciſe. No diſunion throughout the war has taken place between Congreſs and the ſeveral States. A coalition of ſentiment has ever been prevalent; their recommendations have ever been attended to, as far as the ſituation of the ſeveral States would admit; and if at any time their recommendations were not adopted, it appears their refuſal did not ariſe from any diſaffection, but their inability at that particular time to comply with the requiſition. A confidence has ever been placed in Congreſs in all their foreign and domeſtic negociations, in as general a manner as is conceivable, in ſo extenſive a confederation. Many particulars might be mentioned, to ſhew wherein the moſt perfect union has been continued, even in matters the moſt likely to produce anarchy and diſorder. From what we have hitherto experienced, we ought to judge it is the faireſt and moſt eligible method; therefore, from what has hitherto appeared reſpecting Congreſs and the States, we have no reaſon to ſuppoſe a diſunion will take place in any matters eſſential to the ſupport of their independence.

With reſpect to ſome late altercations which has ſet the whole ſcribbling crew in motion, they appear to be of a mere temporary nature; and our making ſuch pompous parade about them, only ſerves to convince the world of our venom and chagrin. It ſeems Congreſs have removed from Philadelphia to Princeton; and pray what then? Do they not ſit in Princeton in their official capacity? If we had heard that the States had voted Congreſs a uſeleſs body and had annihilated them, there might be ſome reaſon for our exultation; but their removing from one place to another, merely as a convenience, and there exerciſing their judicial authority, is too trifling a circumſtance for this nation to expect any advantage from; as Congreſs now as fully retain all their authority and power at Princeton as they did at Philadelphia, where, then, is our great cauſe to glory?

Great expectations are formed from the ſituation of their finances. No country has greater reſources within themſelves than America; but can we expect a young country, having the formidable power of Britain to engage with, ſhould be able to arrange their whole military department, and at the ſame time be in a ſituation to regulate their finances in ſuch order, as to eſtabliſh a regular fund for the diſcharge of all debts contracted in the war. It is the wonder of the world they have accompliſhed thus far. The debt which they have contracted can in a very little time be fully diſcharged, by bringing forth a very ſmall proportion of their numberleſs reſources. How ignorant muſt this country be reſpecting the abilities of America, if we ſuppoſe the American debt can in the leaſt manner embarraſs them in the payment. A debt of a few millions can be quickly wiped off by a young, flouriſhing, enterprizing country. If that country had by this war contracted a debt in addition to one they before groaned under, we might indulge the idea that their reſources were not adequate to the purpoſes of diſcharging their arrears; but the late war debt is their only debt, and they have every thing untouched among themſelves to diſcharge it. Their encreaſe of trade with all nations will ſoon promote a national fund, by the duties ariſing from the various ſources of trade. The American debt is rather an advantage to their growth as a young nation; it will make them attentive to their finances, and force them to explore reſources, which otherwiſe might be wholly unknown; it will encourage induſtry, frugality and attention, virtues moſt eſſential to the proſperity of a young nation. From the danger of their public debt, we cannot therefore expect a diſſolution of their independence; it rather becomes a cement for its ſtability; their encreaſe of trade, their produce and manufactures, will ever keep that country above the danger of bankruptcy.

The late recommendation to the ſeveral States, reſpecting their furniſhing Congreſs with a fund for the diſcharge of the public debt, is of a very important nature; we in England poſitively declare the States will not comply with the requiſition, and then haſtily make up our judgment, that the confederation muſt conſequently be diſſolved. The recommendation, it is true, is not yet complied with, but ſo far from drawing the general conſequences it eſtabliſhes more the ſentiment of their permanent union; nothing is laſting that is haſtily done; their long debates on the proper meaſures, and their not complying in a hurry, convinces me that all their actions are the effects of cool deliberation. It appears the ſenſe of all the States, that ſome meaſures muſt be adopted to put Congreſs in a ſituation to diſcharge their public contracts; but the meaſures for this purpoſe cannot, nor ought not, by a free people, to be done haſtily. We herein ſee the ſpirit of a free people, by their debates on money inſtitutions uncontrouled; they debate on the utility of the meaſure, and the moſt eligible method for its execution: The wiſdom of a free government is hereby conſpicuous; their deliberations give a permanency to their doings, and when their meaſures are once adopted, they become laſting and concluſive.

Money ſupplies are reckoned a moſt intereſting tranſaction in a nation, and no greater ſecurity is evident, than when a people grant their ſupplies with caution and deliberation. Haſty grants always portend a diſſolution; our concluſions therefore from their not yet complying with the requiſition of Congreſs muſt be erroneous, and we cannot but be convinced that their long debates will finally produce a fixed and adequate eſtabliſhment.

Upon the whole, we have hitherto been kept in ſuch ignorance reſpecting the American war, and the preſent ſituation of that country, that I have not wondered at the many paragraphs which are daily publiſhed; but I hope in future we ſhall open our eyes, and no longer become the dupes of folly and deception.

LUCIUS.

PHILADELPHIA, November 26.

The following letter and addreſs were preſented to his Excellency General Waſhington, on the 15th inſtant.

SIR, Weſt-Point, Nov. 15, 1783.

THE officers of the part of the army who agreed on the incloſed addreſs, having committed to us the honor of preſenting it, with great pleaſure we now offer to your Excellency this teſtimony of their affectionate attachment and reſpect. We have the honor to be, with perfect conſideration, Sir, your Excellency's moſt obedient and moſt humble ſervants,

A. M'DOUGALL, Major-General,
H. KNOX, Major General,
T. PICKERING, Q. M. General.

To his Excellency General Waſhington, Commander in Chief of the Armies of the United States of America.

WE, the officers of the part of the army remaining on the Banks of the Hudſon, have received your Excellency's ſerious and farewel addreſs to the armies of the United States. We beg your acceptance of our unfeigned thanks for the communication, and your affectionate aſſurances of inviolable attachment and friendſhip. If your attempts to enſure to the armies the juſt, the promiſed rewards of their long, ſevere and dangerous ſervices, have failed of ſucceſs, we believe it has ariſen from cauſes not in your Excellency's power to controul. With extreme regret do we reflect on the occaſion which called for ſuch endeavours. But while we thank your Excellency for theſe exertions in favor of the troops you have ſo ſucceſsfully commanded, we pray it may be believed, that in this ſentiment our own particular intereſts have but a ſecondary place; and that even the ultimate ingratitude of the people (were that poſſible) would not ſhake the patriotiſm of thoſe who ſuffer by it. Still, with pleaſing wonder and with grateful joy, ſhall we contemplate the glorious concluſion of our labours. To that merit in the revolution, which, under the auſpices of Heaven, the armies have diſplayed, poſterity will do juſtice; and the ſons will bluſh whoſe fathers were their foes. Moſt gladly would we caſt a veil over every act which ſullies the reputation of our country—never ſhould the page of hiſtory be ſtained with its diſhonor—even from our memories ſhould the idea be eraſed. We lament the oppoſition to thoſe ſalutary meaſures which the wiſdom of the Union has planned: meaſures which alone can recover and fix on a permanent baſis the credit of the States; meaſures which are eſſential to the juſtice, the honor and intereſt of the nation. While ſhe was giving the nobleſt proofs of magnanimity, with conſcious pride we ſaw her growing fame; and, regardleſs of preſent ſufferings, we looked forward to the end of our toils and dangers, to brighter ſcenes in proſpect. There we beheld the genius of our country dignified by ſovereignty and independence, ſupported by juſtice, and adorned with every liberal virtue. There we ſaw patient huſbandry fearleſs extend her cultured fields, and animated commerce ſpread her ſails to every wind. There we beheld fair ſcience lift her head, with all the arts attending in her train. There, bleſt with freedom, we ſaw the human mind expand; and throwing aſide the reſtraints which confined it to the narrow bounds of COUNTRY, it embraced the WORLD. Such were our fond hopes, and with ſuch delightful proſpects did they preſent us. Nor are we diſappointed. Thoſe animating PROSPECTS are now changed and changing to REALITIES; and actively to have contributed to their production is our pride, our glory. But JUSTICE alone can give them ſtability. In that JUSTICE we ſtill believe. Still we hope that the prejudices of the miſinformed will be removed, and the arts of falſe and ſelfiſh popularity, addreſſed to the feelings of avarice, defeated: For in the worſt event, the world, we hope, will make the juſt diſtinction. We truſt the diſingenuouſneſs of a few will not ſully the reputation, the honor and dignity of the great and reſpectable majority of the States.

We are happy in the opportunity juſt preſented of congratulating your Excellency on the certain concluſion of the DEFINITIVE TREATY OF PEACE. Relieved at length from long ſuſpenſe, our warmeſt wiſh is to return to the boſom of our country, to reſume the character of citizens; and it will be our higheſt ambition to become uſeful ones. To your Excellency this great event muſt be peculiarly pleaſing; for while at the head of her armies, urged by patriot virtues and magnanimity, you perſevered, under the preſſure of every poſſible difficulty and diſappointment, in the purſuit of the great objects of the war—the freedom and ſafety of your country—your heart panted for the tranquil enjoyments of peace. We cordially rejoice with you that the period of indulging them has arrived ſo ſoon. In contemplating the bleſſings of liberty and independence, the rich price of eight years hardy adventure, paſt ſufferings will be forgotten; or if remembered, the recollection will ſerve to heighten the reliſh of preſent happineſs. We ſincerely pray GOD this happineſs may long be yours; and that when you quit the ſtage of human life, you may receive from the UNERRING JUDGE the rewards of valor exerted to ſave the oppreſſed—of patriotiſm and diſintereſted virtue.

GARRISON ORDERS,

Weſt Point, Nov. 16, 1783.

THE Definitive Treaty being concluded, and the city of New-York to be evacuated on the 22d inſtant, his Excellency the Commander in Chief propoſes to celebrate the peace at that place, on Monday, the 1ſt day of December next, by a diſplay of the fire-works and illuminations which were intended to be exhibited at this poſt, or ſuch of them as have not been injured by time, and can be tranſported. JOHN DOUGHTY, Fort Major.

On Saturday laſt, John Thaxter, Eſq; private Secretary to the Honorable Mr. Adams, arrived here from l'Orient, via New-York, where he was landed from on board the French Pacquet, the Courier de l'Europe, which left France on the 26th of September. This gentleman comes with official diſpatches to Congreſs from their Miniſters in Europe, and brings the Definitive Treaty of Peace between Great-Britain and America, which will not be publiſhed until it has been formally laid before the United States in Congreſs aſſembled.-- However, we can aſſure our readers that the articles which compoſe this treaty are preciſely the ſame as thoſe compoſing the proviſional articles, but with a ſmall difference in the preamble and concluſion.---It was ſigned at Paris on the 3d of September laſt.

The Treaty of Commerce was not concluded when the Pacquet left France.

We have it from a French gentleman of diſtinction, that the ſhip America, of 74 guns (preſented by Congreſs to our good ally the King of France) arrived at Breſt, from Portſmouth, New-Hampſhire, after a fine paſſage of 22 days. She is an excellent ſhip a fine ſailer, and is greatly admired by the naval officers at Breſt.

The following gentlemen are choſen officers of the Society of the Cincinnati for the ſtate of Virginia:

Major-General Gates, Preſident.
Brigadier General Muhlenberg, Vice-Preſident.
Lieut. Col. Oliver Towles, Secretary.
Lieut. Col. Edward Carrington, Treaſurer.
Delegates to the general meeting:
Brigadier-General Weedon, Colonels Wood, Heth, Lee, and Lieutenant Colonel Hopkins.

The ſchooner Eſther, Captain Towers, is arrived at Charles-Town, after a paſſage of 22 days, having been diſmaſted in a gale of wind ſoon after leaving our Capes. The Betſey, Swinburn, from Virginia, is alſo arrived at Charles-Town, having been 21 days at ſea, and received conſiderable damages, being thrown on her beam ends, and obliged to cut away her maſts.

Sir Guy Carleton, with the remains of his Britiſh legions, will retire to Long Iſland and Staten-Iſland, until the arrival of another diviſion of tranſports, which is momently expected from Europe.

To be SOLD by AUCTION,

On the 1ſt of DECEMBER next, on the Premiſes,

§ 6 w. CASPER ERB.

NEW-JERSEY,

HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY, November 14, 1783.

The ADDRESS to the Governor, Council and Assembly of the state of New-Jersey, by CASPAR VOGHT and Company, of Hamburgh, respecting trade, with a specification of goods, &c. were read; whereupon Ordered, That the Clerk be directed to furnish the Printer of the New Jersey Journal, as also the Printers of the Pennsylvania Gazette, with a copy thereof, and that they be requested to publish the same.

Extract from the Minutes,
MASKELL EWING, jun. Clerk.

To his Excellency the Governor, and the Honorable Members of Assembly of the State of New-Jersey, in Council assembled.

GENTLEMEN,

PERSUADED that in your well known great goodness, you will condescend to excuse our presuming to address you in a Legislative body, we beg leave, through your Honorable Assembly, to assure the inhabitants of your state, that the deserved freedom and independence of North-America, so generally desired, and on the point of being universally acknowledged, will immensely contribute to the happiness of all Europe, as well as theirs; change the system of every merchant established before this expected glorious revolution; and open the best of prospects to both sides the Atlantic; prospects that assure multiplied and reciprocal advantages.

Excited more by a patriotic zeal, than self-interest, we also beg leave, Gentlemen, to remind you of the superior advantages peculiar to Germany; it being in the opinion of very many great and learned men, who have no further interest in the revolutions of trade, than a sincere wish for the good of the whole, of all places in Europe, that, which best promises mutual benefits, from the conformity of its climate with yours; having all the manufactures proper for your trade, particularly those of the first necessity.

Hamburgh, a neutral, free and imperial city, happily situated upon the river Elbe, about eighty English miles from the sea, is considered as the key to all Germany, and the general magazine of all the northern productions. The harbour is continually full of ships, from almost every nation, and so very safe, deep and commodious, that the greatest can anchor close to the quays. It is also esteemed one of the richest and most flourishing cities of Europe; there being none which have such an universal trade in the products of America and both the Indies; nor so well stored with all the manufactures indispensably necessary to the North-Americans, who were formerly obliged to receive them on very unprofitable terms from England. In this town, therefore, the American merchants can be certain of meeting the best market, both for buying and selling.

We take the liberty, Gentlemen, to offer you herewith, a list of all the goods manufactured in Germany; as well as of those we get at the first hand from Russia, Sweden and Denmark; which here in Hamburgh we are able to sell as cheap, and often cheaper, than the merchants of those countries themselves.

Mr. Peter Penet, Agent for Virginia, and partner of the late Mr. Emanuel Pliarne, during his stay in Hamburgh, informed us of all the merchandize proper for your continent; and having in his travels through Germany seen its different manufactures, and observed their quality and moderate prices, he advised us to send somebody over to America, with samples of those proper for the American market, and which the English formerly bought of us to send there.

It is in the before mentioned city of Hamburgh, that for a long series of years, from father to son, our house has carried on a pretty extensive trade.

Encouraged by your known goodness, the advice of Mr. Penet, and the credit and experience our so long established trade has procured us, we hereby humbly sollicit the honor of your commands, for all such of the described articles you may think necessary to purchase. We will make it our principal study to serve you with the strictest probity, so as to deserve a continuance of your favors and confidence.

We propose, Gentlemen, sending directly an able and intelligent person to deliver you the samples, &c. and to receive your orders, in case you should please to grant us any.

We have the honor to be,
Gentlemen, with the greatest reverence and respect,
Your most devoted, and most obedient humble servants.
CASPAR VOGHT, and Co.

TO THE PUBLIC,

DR. BLAIR's character in the literary world is too well known to require any thing to be said of it. His Sermons, some time ago published, have, for elegance of composition and beauty of style, been universally admired: And the Lectures now offered to the Public, have been delivered by him in the University of Edinburgh for many years past to a very respectable and crouded attendance. The importance of their subjects to the Gentleman and the Scholar, must be at once perceived upon glancing over their Contents; and the knowledge, ability, and taste, displayed in their execution, have been acknowledged and admired by the first literary characters. This work has been very lately published in London, and will be sold here for about one half of the price of the London impression.

A few Copies will be printed on an ordinary paper, for the accommodation of Youth, and at a lower price.

A FRESH quantity is now again prepared in the best perfection, and sold in Philadelphia, by Mr. William Poyntell, at his Store, three doors below Market-street, in Second-street, and directly opposite the Friend's meeting-house gate; also by Mr. George Reinhold, in Market-street, next door to the Black-Bear; by Mr. Steiner, at the German Printing-Office, in Race-street; at Germantown, by Mr. Justus Fox; and by the subscriber, at his place, in Kingsess, near Gray's Ferry. Price Six Shillings and Six-pence per bottle, and by the dozen, Six Shillings a bottle.

It is now many years since this balsam has been well known to be a most effectual and infallible medicine for colds, coughs and asthmas; that it gives great relief in the gravel, rheumatism, consumption, cholic; that it is a most excellent cure in the hooping cough, and in most of the sicknesses of children, and for many other diseases, as may be seen in the printed direction, in English and German, with each bottle; in old diseases of long standing, it will be necessary to continue the use of this healing balsam for a reasonable time, by more than one single bottle, and then they may expect relief from this, as thousands of people can testify, who have tried other things without success.

If any balsam under this name should be sold at any other place not named in my advertisement, the public may be assured it is not Dr. Hill's Balsam, but counterfeit, because no other person in America is able to prepare the genuine balsam, for want of the principal ingredients of which Dr. Hill's American Balsam is composed. § WILLIAM YOUNG, Botanist.

TO BE LETT,

And may be entered on in two weeks,

THAT new built and well constructed house, for a Tavern and Ferry, together with the boats, on the banks of Delaware, and on the great road leading from Philadelphia to New-York, a mile and an half above Bristol, with or without about 60 acres of arable land; the ferry is convenient for travellers to Perth-Amboy, Monmouth, and great part of the Jerseys, especially the city of Burlington, as there is a road and bridge lately erected and compleated over the creek next to the city. For further particulars, enquire of William Beaven, in Second-street, between Market and Chestnut-streets, or of the subscriber, near the premises. CHRISTIAN MINNICK.

N. B. None need apply but such as can be well recommended and capable of keeping a good house of entertainment. Also a good plantation to be lett, enquire as above. Oct. 29.

CAME to the plantation of the subscriber, living in Bristol township, Bucks county, a red brown Heifer, about two years old, with a crop in each ear. The owner is desired to pay charges, and take her away. CHRISTIAN MINNICK. ¶

TO BE SOLD,

A HOUSE, GRANARIES and WHARFF, in Water-street, a few doors below Chesnut-street, the Lot is 20 or 22 feet front, including part of an 8 feet Alley, sufficient for any waggon to pass. The stand speaks for itself, as there is few or none to exceed it for business. For further particulars, enquire of the Printers.

TO BE SOLD,

By the SUBSCRIBER, living on the premises,

A VALUABLE PLANTATION, lying in Bristol township, Bucks county, within one mile of Bristol borough, and half a mile from the river Delaware, containing 60 acres of very good land, ten of which is rich bottom meadow, and 20 acres very good woodland, the remainder good arable land; there is on the premises a good stone house, with three rooms on a floor, a good kitchen and cellar under the house, a good barn, milch-house, and other out-houses; likewise two apple orchards of the best grafted fruit, with a variety of other fruit trees of the best kind. For further particulars, enquire of Everard Boulton, in Front-street, Philadelphia, between Market and Arch-streets, or the subscriber, on the premises.

¶ GEORGE WELSH.

Red-Lion Hundred, New-Castle county, Oct. 4, 1783.

WAEREAS SUSANNA HOWEL, alias DAVIS, hath, in a clandestine manner carried off the goods and effects of the subscriber, and has left his house, and refuses to live with him any longer: These are therefore to forewarn all persons not to trust her on my account, as I am determined to pay no debts of her contracting after the above date.

§ ENOS HOWEL.

THIS is to forewarn all persons that I JAMES CRISWELL, of Oxford township, Chester county, have purchased a tract of LAND of JAMES M'GOLDRICK, of Fort-Pitt, and have given him three BONDS, consisting of 100l. each; the first hundred pounds payable in December, 1783, and the next payment of 100l. in September, 1784, the next payment in September, 1785: As I have seen the land, and it being far from the description that said James M'Goldrick sold it to me for; I therefore forewarn and discharge any person or persons from receiving or taking an assignment on said bonds, as I will never pay any of them unless compelled by law.

Sept. 1, 1783. † JAMES CRISWELL.

N. B. The above Bonds were all dated in August, 1783.
